

THE EIFFEL TOWER
FRUIT AND FACTS

THE EIFFEL TOWER

- The Eiffel Tower is nicknamed the Iron Lady because of its metallic structure.
- It is 324 metres/ 1063 feet tall (including antennas) and weighs 10,100 tonnes.
- The architect, Gustave Eiffel also took part in the construction of the Statue of Liberty.
- It was initially created for the World Fair in 1889 and took 2 years, 2 months and 5 days to complete. It was meant to be demolished after the event.
- It is painted in different shades to make it "look" the same at the top as at the bottom. It has been repainted 16 times already.
- There are over 1,700 steps to reach the top.
- Every evening it lights up for 5 minutes at the beginning of every hour.

LA TOUR EIFFEL IN FRENCH

- La Tour Eiffel est surnommée la Dame de Fer à cause de sa structure métallique.
- Elle mesure 324 mètres en tenant compte de l'antenne et pèse 10,100 tonnes.
- Son architecte, Gustave Eiffel a aussi participé à la construction de la Statue de la Liberté.
- La Tour Eiffel fut initialement créée pour l'exposition Universelle de 1889, sa construction dura 2 mois et 5 jours, elle devait initialement être détruite juste après l'évènement.
- Elle est peinte avec plusieurs teintes pour donner une impression d'uniformité de haut en bas.
- Il y a plus de 1700 marches jusqu'au sommet.
- Tous les soirs, elle scintille 5 minutes au début de chaque heure.

THE EDIBLE EIFFEL TOWER

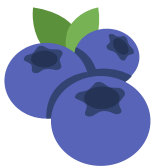

Impress your friends and family by bringing the Eiffel tower straight to their plate!

All you need is fresh fruits, a chopping board and a knife!

To create an Eiffel tower coloured like a French flag we recommend blueberries, bananas and raspberries.

Depending on the season, you could adapt!

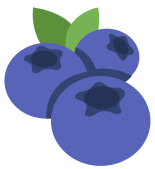

THE EDIBLE BEAR

Make your own bear! Create a fruit version of Burlington with his bow tie!

All you need is fresh fruits, a chopping board and a knife!

We used bananas, blueberries and peaches but depending on the season, you could change!

We would love to see your fruit creations! Please send your bear and Eiffel towers to info@charlottesydimby.com

Merci!
