

Chapter 1 - Revelation of the Magi

Before sharing the chapter on, “Crushing The Head Of The Serpent”, I would like to share with you an exciting story that just this year came forth. It is about the release of an ancient 2nd century Syriac text called the Revelation Of The Magi translated by Brent Landau from the Vatican library archives. In this book, Revelation of the Magi are proposed to have been descendants of Seth, who inherited a prophecy from their forbearer Adam declaring that Christ would descend into the world and assume the physical flesh at a certain period and time. Remaining throughout the generations of humanity vigilant in keeping watch for the fulfillment of this event, the children of Seth created an order specifically to watch for this sign.

“The Magi anticipate the star and its significance because of a prophecy written down by Seth—which was first told to him by Adam—about the coming of a star that would signal the birth of God in human form.” - Kastalia Medrano, Epiphany: Ancient Christian Text Ads To Biblical Story Of The Magi Traveling To Bethlehem For Birth Of Jesus, Newsweek

In this newly released manuscript, the star of Bethlehem is equated to be the supreme divinity of Christ Himself, who descending from the heavens entered into this time-space dimensionality. He leads them to the cave where coming into the womb of His mother the Virgin Mary, He is conceived of flesh. Because He is unlike normal newborn human children, He has the ability, capacity, and intelligence to address His mother, the Magi, and shepherds in speech informing them that He has arrived to fulfill role as the long-awaited Savior Messiah.

He has said that Jesus spoke, and, indeed, when He was lying in His cradle said to Mary His mother: I am Jesus, the Son of God, the Logos, whom thou hast brought forth, as the Angel Gabriel announced to thee; and my Father has sent me for the salvation of the world. - The Arabic Gospel Of The Infancy Of The Savior

2 He relates, that Jesus spake even when he was in the cradle, and said to his mother: 3 Mary, I am Jesus the Son of God, that word which thou didst bring forth according to the declaration of the angel Gabriel to thee, and my father hath sent me for the salvation of the world. - The First Gospel of The Infancy of Jesus Christ

The Magi perceiving with their own eyes the fulfillment of the prophecy of His coming, return to their land to inform the others of their order of this prophetic realization. This prediction as I will show had been handed down along with the Commandments in the law of Yahweh Elohim from Adam, Seth, Enoch, Noah, Shem, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and the 12 tribes of Israel. Moses is a harbinger of the coming of Yahushua Christ, as a Savior-Messiah type persona like Abraham was instrumental in sharing these prophecies and establishing the law to those people that became the Hebrew Israelites.

Moses himself too found many things, which were going down and coming by tradition from mouth to ear, from one generation to another; and he put them into his book, although he left out many things which could not be comprised in it. For that which is said of Abraham, that he was enjoining his children and his household to keep the commandments of the Lord, is older than the laws of Moses by four hundred and thirty years. For these commandments, which Abraham was enjoining his household to keep, were received by him, as it were by tradition, from Shem; and Shem too received them from his father Noah, and Noah received them from Enoch; and Enoch received them from Adam; and Adam received them from his Lord. - Concerning The Star: The Magi Recognized

In chapter 83 of the Book of Enoch, the prophet details in dream vision what would play out as the entire history of the enmity between the seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent beginning with Adam to what would be the harvest at the end of days. Confirmed as having been written hundreds of years before the birth of Christ, the Book of Enoch relates in foresight the first prognostications of Yahushua's first and second coming.

That at the climax of modern human history He would return to finish the war with Satan over the souls of humanity. At that time every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess.

I will in a few chapters before sharing the testamentary accounts of the patriarchs and prophets, list in the timeline the prophecies associated with Christ's coming as Savior Messiah as well as how He completed the Genesis 3:15 crushing of the head of the serpent. These proclamations will prove that the children of Seth as depicted in the newly released manuscript The Revelation Of The Magi, were indeed vigilant in their keen anticipation of the arrival into this world of the Word, Memra, and Logos of the Lord, the only begotten Son's incarnation as God into mortal flesh.

Understanding how this prophecy had always been the pivotal belief of what became one of the core tenets evolving the faith of Judaism and Christianity, one will better be able to see how this knowledge formulates the foundation for their teachings. Passed down through their seed-line we as the final fig-tree generation which according to Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21 would see all prophetic utterances completed in actualization, are the inheritors of such legacy.

"About the revelation of the Magi, and about their coming to Jerusalem, and about the gifts that they brought to Christ.' In an account of the revelations and the visions, which the kings,' [sons of kings,] of the great East' spoke,' who were called Magi in the language of that land because in silence, without a sound, they glorified and they prayed.' "And in silence and in the mind they glorified and prayed to the exalted and holy majesty of the Lord of life,' to the holy and glorious Father, who is hidden by the great brightness of himself and is more lofty and holy than all reasoning. "And the language of human beings is not able to speak about him as he is except as he has wished, and when he has wished, and by means of whom he wishes. "And neither his heavenly worlds nor the lower ones are able to speak about his majesty, except as it is fitting for the will of his majesty to reveal to the worlds so that they are able to party from the gift' of his majesty, because (his majesty) great and they are not able to speak of it.

THE MAGI-THEIR NAMES AND LINEAGE

'And so, there were those wise men,' who were called Magi in the language of the land because in silence, without a sound, they praised the God of all, that one who, his word and will, has come to be all that is, all that exists and arises, and all that is going to be. 2:2 And there is nothing that exists outside of his will, and furthermore, there is no one who will stand against the will of the Father of all. 'The names of the wise men and kings were called as follows: 38 Zaharwandad son of Artaban, 3 Hormizd son of Sanatruq; Augtazp son of Gudaphar,⁹ Argak son of Mihruq; Zarwand son of Wadwad, Ariho son of Kosrau; Artahgigat son of Hawilat, Agtanbozan son of i'_grawan, Mihruq son of Flumam• Aligirag son of Sahban; Nasardih son of Baladan; Merodak son of Bil. 'These are kings, sons of Eastern kings, in the land of Shir,' which is the outer part of the entire East of the world inhabited by human beings, at the Ocean, 41 the great sea beyond the world, east 42 of the land of Nod, 43 that place in which dwelt Adam, head and chief of all the families of the world. 2:5 And these sons of kings received commandments, laws, and even books from their fathers.

2:6 And generation from generation. one by one, they received (them,) from the time of Seth, the son of our father Adam, because Adam revealed (them) to his son Seth when he had him.' 2:7 And Adam taught Seth about his prior greatness before he transgressed against the commandment, and about his expulsion from Paradise.' And he warned his son Seth not to transgress also against the (divine) justice as Adam (did).

THE TRANSMISSION OF THE MYSTERIES

3:1 And Seth received the commandment of his father with a pure heart, 46 and he took care of the agreement and the gift of the exalted Lord of majesty. 3:2 And it was given to Seth to set down in a book and to make known the wisdom, and to call upon the name of the LORD,' the Lord of every soul who seeks after life. 'And from him a book appeared in the world for the first time,' which was set down in the name of the Exalted One. 'And Seth entrusted to his descendants the book that was set down, and it was transmitted up to Noah, that one who was found just and was delivered from the waters. 49 'And [in the time of the Deluge,] Noah [took] the books of commandments with him [in the Ark. And when] he came out of the Ark, Noah also commanded the generations after who recounted his great deeds and the hidden mysteries 50 that are written in the books of Seth about the majesty of the Father and all the mysteries. down in succession by tradition even until our" [books,] and the mysteries, and the speech were handed And they learned and received with joy, and handed them down to us ourselves, and we also kept with love and fear their mysteries of the books and the secrets and the words. 'And we prayed in silence and gave thanks and glorified, bowing our knees and lifting our hands to the height of heaven, 52 to the Lord of that majesty that is hidden from the eyes of everything that lives.

THE PROPHECY OF THE STAR

'And those books of hidden mysteries were placed on the Mountain of Victories' in the east of Shir, our country, in a cave, the Cave of Treasures of the Mysteries of the Life of Silence. 54 4:2 And our fathers commanded us as they also received from their fathers and they said to us: 55 'Wait for the light that shines forth to you from the exalted East 56 of the majesty of the Father, the light that shines forth on high in the form of a star' over the Mountain of Victories and comes to rest upon a pillar of light 58 within the Cave of Treasures [of] Hidden Mysteries. 4:3 And also command your sons, and your sons their sons, until the mystery of the exalted star that shines
