

Chapter 1 - How I Decypted Enoch's Book On The Courses Of The Heavenly Luminaries

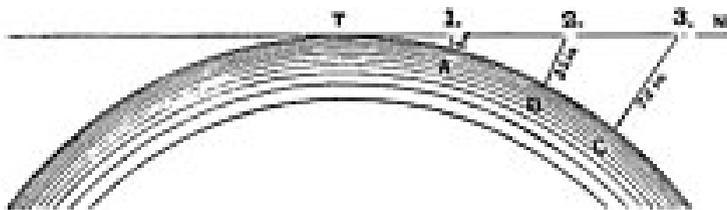

The story of my awakening to flat earth:

Paralyzed in 1994 when we lost our brakes on a mountain road in Garberville, California, I rededicated my life to the study of the Bible and other ancient manuscripts. Which because of the advent of the Internet was easily accomplishable and something that being in a wheelchair had no bearing upon. Examining these sources, I became familiar with concepts little spoken about by mainstream churchianity. Having been a published author since 1992, I began releasing books about my findings on such esoteric subjects as the antediluvian age, fallen Angels, Giants, blood-lines, pre-existence, and end time prophecy. Which interestingly were topics coming to the forefront of conscience during that time.

In 2006 I began guest appearances on shows utilizing blogtalkradio.com as self-broadcasting portal, and in 2008 created my own show. I now find myself part of two of the largest Internet radio platforms, Revolution and Truth Frequency Radio. At the end of 2014, one of my cohosts the Hijacker, calling into my show began imploring me to examine flat earth. Having taken three years of astronomy as my science in college and believing this topic lunacy, historically settled, and a complete waste of time. It was only after months of insistence to remain open-minded by he and other listeners, (something I always requested of them when bringing forth highly contested teachings), it was either prove myself a hypocrite or begin unbiased investigation of this new possibility.

Begrudgingly, in January 2015, I embarked on a probe of Flat Earth related YouTube content and after a day of searching, I became acquainted with the Bedford Level experiment. Conducted in 1838 by Samuel Birley Rowbotham, using a telescope, he tested whether a flag tied to the mast of a boat sent six miles across a still-water canal changed in height. A mathematician, he figured out that given the accepted circumference of a spherical earth, the top of the mast should have been some 11 feet (3.4 m) below his line of sight. In 1849, publishing Zetetic Astronomy under the pseudonym Parallax, he reported:

IF the earth is a globe, and is 25,000 English statute miles in circumference, the surface of all standing water must have a certain degree of convexity—every part must be an arc of a circle. From the summit of any such arc there will exist a curvature or declination of 8 inches in the first statute mile. In the second mile the fall will be 32 inches; in the third mile, 72 inches, or 6 feet, as shown in the following diagram:

...After the first few miles the curvature would be so great that no difficulty could exist in detecting either its actual existence or its proportion...In the county of Cambridge there is an artificial river or canal, called the "Old Bedford." It is upwards of twenty miles in length, and ... passes in a straight line through that part of the Fens called the "Bedford Level." The water is nearly stationary—often completely so, and throughout its entire length has no interruption from locks or water-gates of any kind; so that it is, in every respect, well adapted for ascertaining whether any or what amount of convexity really exists.

Rowbotham like those of us gathered here, investigated whether there was any truth to the existence of curvature? And like us was led to the realization that the earth had no rotundity to its form. This fact is one that anyone, anywhere can visually affirm. Landmarks such as lighthouses, islands, monuments, statues, and cityscapes can verifiably be seen beyond the scientifically accepted formula for determining the so-called sphericity of the earth. Even the natural properties and physics of water, negate in possibility that oceans could adhere to a ball or settle out in curved form.

Other 19th century experiments like 1) Michelson-Morely, proved the earth was not moving at any rate of speed. 2) Michelson-Gale, that the aether moved independently of it. 3) Sagnac that the aether was real and slowed light passing through it. 4) “Airey’s failure” that stationary and non-moving, the stars moved in circuit independently above it. Conducting an honest examination of these and other scientific experiments, one must admit without a doubt, the earth immovable, holds no curvature in shape. Which interestingly are facts asserted by God’s word and prophets like Enoch.

He has fixed the earth firm, immovable. – 1 Chronicles 16:30, KJV

Thou hast fixed the earth immovable and firm... - Psalm 93:1, KJV

He has fixed the earth firm, immovable... - Psalm 96:10, KJV

Thou didst fix the earth on its foundation so that it never can be shaken. - Psalm 104:5, KJV

An avid student of the ancient manuscripts, my first thought when considering the feasibility of the earth being flat, was to reexamine Enoch's book on the courses of the heavenly luminaries. A text which though I had read it numerous times, was never able to comprehend. Reviewing it with new perspective, I was mind blown to discover that what the Most High God was revealing to me about cosmology, Enoch had encoded into this 2000+-year-old manuscript saying it was for "a generation which is to succeed at a distant period." We are not generation.

From them I heard all things, and understood what I saw; that which will not take place in this generation, but in a generation which is to succeed at a distant period, on account of the elect. – Book of Enoch 1:2

The knowledge I will present here tonight, has for the last 500 years been lost to humanity. Everyone born into the world since that time has been indoctrinated into a system of belief which has no basis in reality. Identifying the enormity of this revelation, I since that time began chronicling what became my ninth, tenth, and fourteenth books. In June 2015, I released 'The Flat Earth As Key To Decrypt The Book Of Enoch, which in portion will be some of the information I present here. In August 2016, I followed up that release with the Firmament: Vaulted Dome Of The Earth, and last year at the August 2017 Globe versus Flat Earth Debate I had with

Dr. Stephen Pidgeon, Paradise: Sides of the North and Mount of the Congregation.

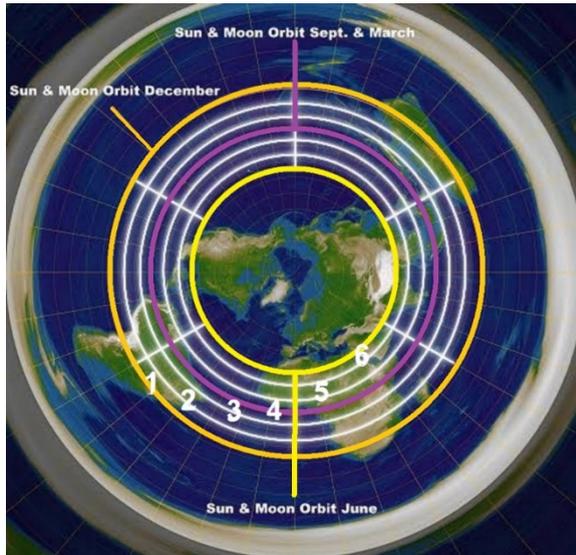

I have over the last 4 years published 1200+ pages detailing my journey to this awakening. Also with my son, Justin and daughter-in-law, Joy, we together started Sacred Word Publishing to make available in book form such out-of-print cosmological titles as The Earth Stands Fast, 50 Reasons Copernicus Vs The Bible, The Flat Earth Archival Proofs Of William Carpenter, Is The Earth A Globe, Kings Dethroned, Zetetic Cosmogony: That The World Is Not A Rotating Revolving Globe, A Song Writer's Story, The Iron Republic, The Book Of Earths, Flat Earth Chronicles, and The Collected Flat Earth Manuscripts.

The Courses Of The Heavenly Luminaries

Enoch explains in chapters 71-81 of the Book of the Courses of the Heavenly Luminaries, that the sun as the Greater Luminary and the moon as the Lesser Luminary, together with all of the other celestial hosts, move in circle around Polaris. This motion is confirmed both by time lapse videography of the star trails over the course of an evening and many other ancient sources such as those cited below.

Uriel showed me; the angel whom the Lord of glory appointed over all the luminaries. Of heaven in heaven, and in the world; that they might rule in the face of the sky, and appearing over the earth, become Conductors of the days and nights: the sun, the moon, the stars, and all the ministers of heaven, which make their circuit with all the chariots of heaven. – Book of Enoch 74:4-9

The heavens are moved by His direction and obey Him in peace. Day and night accomplish the course assigned to them by Him, without hindrance one to another. The sun and the moon and the dancing stars according to His appointment circle in harmony within the bounds assigned to them, without any swerving aside. – 1 Clement 20:1-3

The sun looks down on everything with its light, and the work of the Lord is full of his glory. – Wisdom of Jesus Son of Sirach 42:16

And the sun rose above them to prosper (them), and above everything that was on the earth, everything that shoots out of the earth, and all fruit-bearing trees, and all flesh. – Jubilees 2
