*If something is true it can stand being questioned.
If it is not true then it needs to be questioned!*

“Then He brought me to the entrance of the gate of the LORD’S house which was toward the north; and behold, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.” (Ezekiel 8:14)

Since 1868, thousands of decent Christian women have innocently taken part in pagan rites around the altar to the gods of witchcraft. They have been deceived into bowing their knees to gods so vile and ancient that even the pagan priests of Egypt blotted them out from their history. Women who would blush with shame at the mention of Satanism have been led to Satan’s altar by people they trusted. Often their own husbands, who were given stewardship over them by Jesus Christ, have violated their trust by leading them into paths of idolatry.

Alarming accusations! Yet this altar of idolatry is nestled right in the bosom of Christianity – the Order of the Eastern Star. Much has been written about the spiritual dangers of Freemasonry, yet the “Star” is equally perilous.

Spiritual “Adoption”

The Star is known as “adoptive Masonry.” This means mothers, daughters, wives and sisters of Freemasons may be spiritually “adopted” into the Masonic Order. Hence, they come under its spiritual authority. Now since Lucifer is the acknowledged god of Freemasonry, what does “adoption” mean for the woman who joins the Star? She is submitting herself to the spiritual headship of Lucifer! Even a Christian woman is surrendering herself, however innocently, to the gods of Masonry – and this will give Satan an entry point into her life, regardless of how devout she is.

When anyone, man or woman, becomes a Christian, they are adopted into the family of God (Romans 8:15-17). Yet when they kneel at a Masonic altar and take those oaths, they are entering Satan’s dominion, whether they know it or not. This opens the door to all manner of problems. We have dealt with women who entered the Star, and then found their nights troubled by strange dreams and demonic activity. As soon as they repented of their involvement in the Star and renounced their oaths in the name of Jesus, the oppression ceased.

This is why we are told by Paul to avoid all contact with idolatry because of what it can bring to our very door. “Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness? Or what harmony has Christ with Belial, or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever? “Therefore, COME OUT FROM THEIR MIDST AND BE SEPARATE,” says the Lord. “AND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN; And I will welcome you.” (2 Corinthians 6:14-15, 17.)

Hoof prints are Everywhere!

We need not look far into the Star to find evidence of Satan’s presence. His hoof prints are everywhere. To begin with the most obvious, we look at the “sign” of the Order, which is an inverted five-pointed star – called a pentagram in witchcraft. The fact is that this inverted pentagram is so deeply and unmistakably associated with Satanism that many witches fear to use it for fear of the demons they attract. This star is used to draw down the kingdom of Satan into manifestation on earth. (Man Myth & Magic, Vol. 16, p. 2159)

This star can be drawn with the goat’s-head inside. It then becomes the badge of the Satanist, the infamous Goat of Mendes! This goat’s name is Baphomet, and it is the blasphemous god of the 12th century Knights Templar (the ancestors of today’s Freemasons).

Here is this sinister star, exalted as the very centrepiece of the Chapter. Not only is the star inverted, but the colourful attributes of the five points are even the correct colours for the four magical elements, air (blue), earth (yellow), water (green), and fire (red), plus the fifth point, the bottom, represents “akasha,” the spiritual power of the “astral plane” which is the fusion of all the other “rays” of the star into white.

It is evident that the person who designed the Eastern Star logo had more than a passing knowledge of black magic. That in itself should make Christians nervous. The Bible forbids any involvement with sorcery. “There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices witchcraft, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who casts a spell, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.” (Deuteronomy 18:10-11)

Worship of stars is especially condemned, “The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like the place Topheth, because of all the houses on whose rooftops they burned sacrifices to all the heavenly host and poured out drink offerings to other gods.” (Jeremiah 19:13)

“For he (King Manasseh) built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. He made his son pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and used divination, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD provoking Him to anger.” (2 Kings 21:5-6)

Please note the grievous sins associated with star-worship. “Tophet” is the place where, during the days of the deepest sins in Israel, parents sacrificed their children to the god Molech. It is a “place of burning” which later came to be known as Gehenna, the word often used by Jesus for hell. (Eerdman’s Concise Bible Handbook, p. 203). Manasseh sacrificed his own son in the fire.

If you lay out a satanic star and offer devotions at it, the moral and spiritual consequences are ominous. You may say that you have been a good member of the Star for years and you are still a good member of your church, and that you aren’t making sacrifices for your children, but think!

Are our children not being sacrificed every day through abortion? Are not the generations reared under the influence of the Star the first mothers to lay their babies willingly upon the altars of the abortuaries by the millions? Are we not seeing the dividends of this pagan worship in the corrupting of the very ideals of motherhood? Are we not witnessing the moral destruction of whole generations of children because of the mothers’ participation in these “harmless rituals?”

Perhaps it is too much to lay the blame for moral decay of our children on the Star, but remember how, in the Bible, the people of Israel kept falling into disaster because they allowed a “little” idolatry to creep into their culture. If you wish to corrupt a culture, corrupt its mothers – and the spiritual leprosy of Masonry is doing just that.

“The Star in the East”

At this point you may protest and say that the Star is based on Biblical stories and that the star on the altar is intended to represent the “Star in the East” mentioned in Matthew 2:2 which heralded the birth of Jesus. You may point out that the motto of the order is: “We have seen his star in the east and have come to worship him.” This sounds very pious, but actually, it’s a mis-direction.

First of all, the star of Bethlehem could not have been an “eastern star,” since most Biblical expositors agree the Magi came from the east and that therefore a star over Judea would be in the western sky from their viewpoint. Some scholars feel that the passage means that the Magi were “in the east” when they saw the star – others say that the term “in the east” can also be translated alternately as “seen when it rose,” meaning they saw the star as it arose.

Strong’s Concordance in fact gives the primary meaning of the Greek word there, “Anatole,” as a rising of light; with “eastern” as only a figurative meaning. Vine’s Expository Dictionary concurs. The “Eastern Star” cannot be the star of Bethlehem! Then whose star is it?

In reality the Eastern Star is a term among sorcerers for the star Sirius. (See “City of Revelation” by John Mitchell p.4) This fits perfectly because in black magic, the inverted pentagram is the sign of Sirius or Set. (See “Aleister Crowley and the Hidden God” by Kenneth Grant, p. 12.) But who is Sirius or Set?

Sirius is the “Dog Star,” the first star to rise in the east in the latitudes of Egypt. It is sacred to Set, the satanic figure of Egyptian religion. The Egyptians celebrated Sirius’ ascendancy in the skies with horrible, obscene rituals. In fact the rites of Sirius or Set were so debased that later rulers of Egypt defaced their temples and obelisks and tried to drive them from the land. (See Grant, pps 70-71)

The F.A.T.A.L. Flaw

When the ladies of the Star say, “We have seen his star in the east and are come to worship him,” who is the “him?” Is it Jesus of Calvary, or is it some dog-headed, obscene god named Set? What does the evidence tell us?

The Biblical elements in the Star ceremony are suspect to say the least – based as they are upon dubious actions and mythical additions to the Bible. Yet the occult elements in the Star’s symbolism are obvious for anyone to see. The Eastern Star is not the star that heralded Jesus, but the star that heralds Set – the most ancient form of Satan in recorded history.

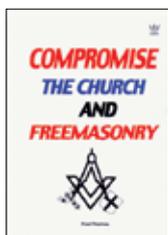

But you might say that you don’t believe in Set, and that you believe that you are performing pious exercises. You say that you thought the Star was an Order that worships the true God. But, my dear friends, every person believes that the god they worship is the true God. The important thing is that if you are a Christian, the Bible tells you to “abstain from every form of evil,” (1 Thessalonians 5:22) and to “guard yourselves from idols,” (1 John 5:21). How can you keep yourself from idols when every other week or so you gather around the most ancient and evil idol in human history?

Is your presence in the Chapter really pleasing to the God who thundered from Mount Sinai and said, “I am the LORD your God... You shall have no other gods before Me.” You can no longer protest innocence. You know the evil origins of the symbols of the Star, and you know the Lord Jesus forbade the taking of oaths of any kind (Matthew 5:33-37). What more do you need than the knowledge that you are breaking the Commands of the gentle Master who you claim to serve?

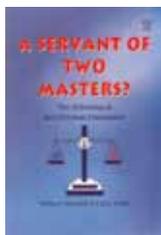

That is the F.A.T.A.L. flaw of the Star. The very term “cabalistic word” refers to an ancient system of Jewish magic – the Qabalah! The Star’s “word” may be “Fairest Among Thousands Altogether Lovely,” but it is asking you to choose between the star of evil and the One who is your beloved Bridegroom, “...dazzling and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand,” (Song of Songs 5:10). Flee the headship and authority of Satan and return to the arms of Him who should be your head, your Bridegroom, and your Saviour, Jesus Christ.

God’s instruction to His people is simple:

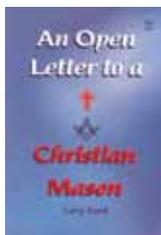

“Have nothing to do with the things of darkness, but rather expose them.” (Ephesians 5:11)
