

FACTS

You won't be told when Mormon Missionaries call at your door

Our street has recently had another visit from the Mormon Missionaries. They were promoting the unorthodox religious beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints based in Salt Lake City, Utah, U.S.A.

As a concerned neighbor you might be interested in some facts about this religious organisation.

Mormons go to great lengths to appear "Christian" when they present their beliefs and their church to you. But they won't tell you the full story. (We have found many of them don't even know the truth about their own church.)

Mormons won't tell you that their Prophet, Joseph Smith Jnr., was heavily involved in the Occult, Spiritism and Freemasonry when he founded Mormonism.

Joseph Smith Jnr.

Mormons won't tell you that they encourage visitations from dead relatives from the "spirit world," a practice repeatedly forbidden in the Bible. (see Leviticus 19:31, & 20:6)

Mormons won't tell you that their secret temple oaths are based on the same oaths used in Freemasonry's Blue Lodge. These are gruesome, including ripping out the tongue, the heart and the stomach if the secrets are shared with a non-Mormon/Mason.

Mormons won't tell you that they considered the Negro race and all brown-skinned people to be inferior, having the "Curse of Cain" because of their skin colour and curly hair. People of such races were forbidden entry into Mormon temples and priesthood orders until 1978.

Mormons won't tell you that Joseph Smith taught there were inhabitants of the moon who dressed like Quakers and lived to about 1,000 years of age. Brigham Young, Smith's replacement, taught there were similar inhabitants on the sun as well.

Mormons won't tell you that their prophet Joseph Smith did not die as a martyr as they claim, but was killed during a gun battle while he, his brother Hyrum & several friends were trying to escape from the Carthage jail. They were in jail for burning down the local newspaper which had printed damaging information about them. Smith killed two men and wounded a third. He also gave the Masonic hailing sign of distress while being gunned down. Martyrs don't shoot back!

Mormons won't tell you that they intend to become gods themselves one day, and are helping to earn their exaltation to godhood by talking to you.

Mormons won't tell you that women receive salvation only through their Mormon husbands, and must remain pregnant for all eternity.

Mormons won't tell you that they intend to have many wives in heaven, until they have enough children to populate their own planet.

Mormons won't tell you that the "heavenly father" they ask you to pray to with them is really an exalted, evolved man who lives on a planet near the imaginary starbase Kolob, and is not the Heavenly Father of the Christian Bible at all.

Mormons won't tell you that the Virgin Mary really wasn't a virgin at all, but had a normal marriage relationship with their heavenly father to produce the Mormon version of Jesus.

Mormons won't tell you that they believe Jesus is really Lucifer's brother in the spirit world, and it was only due to a heavenly council of gods which voted that the Mormon Jesus should become the earth's redeemer and Saviour, instead of Lucifer/Satan.

Mormons won't tell you that they believe Jesus of Nazareth had three wives - two Mary's and Martha - plus several children while he lived on earth. Since Mormons believe that only married men can become gods, Jesus had to be married to fit into their beliefs.

Mormons won't tell you that their so-called inspired scriptures (The Book of Mormon, Pearl of Great Price & Doctrines & Covenants) all contradict each other as well as the Bible. No Christian group accepts these books as authoritative.

Mormons won't tell you that the reason the Book of Mormon has no maps is because there is no evidence to support it, not even for one of the 38 major cities it claims existed. (The holy books of every world religion have maps to establish their origins.) Even the highly regarded Smithsonian Institute of Washington discredited the archeological and linguistic claims of the Book of Mormon, including the half million casualties claimed to have fallen at Cumorah, New York, in 385 AD. The Mormon Church says it has evidence to support its claims, but refuses to allow any independent testing. What do they have to hide?

Mormons won't tell you that the three witnesses (Cowdery, Whitmer & Harris) claimed by Joseph Smith to have seen the gold plates from which the Book of Mormon was alleged to have been translated, all left the Mormon Church and each later testified publicly none of them ever saw the gold plates. Cowdery also accused Smith of adultery (later proven), lying and teaching false doctrines. Smith accused all three of being "thieves and counterfeiters." If Smith were right, why do these three still have their names printed at the beginning of every Book of Mormon, even today?

Oliver Cowdery

Mormons won't tell you that there have been over 4,000 changes to the Book of Mormon since it was first introduced by Smith as "The Inspired Word of God," and "The Most Perfect Book on Earth." Most of these changes were made to cover up Smith's false prophecies, including the Second Coming of Jesus Christ in 1891. 58 out of 61 of Smith's prophecies failed to happen - sure signs of a false prophet.

Mormons won't tell you that The Book of Mormon was originally written as a 'fairy-story' of what might have happened if Jesus Christ had visited America. Its real author was probably Rev. Solomon Spaulding, a Congregational minister whose Sunday school was attended by Joseph Smith Jnr. Smith obtained a copy of the manuscript, adding over 25,000 words, mainly from the Bible (especially from Isaiah, Malachi & the New Testament) and then published the book under his own name. In the original versions, Joseph Smith even claimed authorship. The granddaughter of Rev. Spaulding appeared on American television during the 1990's with the original manuscript and the similarities between it and the Book of Mormon are impossible to avoid.

Mormons won't tell you that they consider the Holy Bible to be untrustworthy and full of errors. They claim parts of the Bible have been mistranslated. Mormon leaders have had over 160 years to provide evidence of this, and have yet to produce anything credible.

Mormons won't tell you that they believe their church is the only right one, and that all other churches are wrong; that all Christian creeds are an abomination; and your minister, pastor or priest is hired by Satan to mislead you.

Mormons won't tell you that in the State of Utah, where almost 80% of the population are Mormon, there is a much higher than national average rate of divorce, wife-beating, bigamy, child abuse, teenage suicide & antidepressant use.

Conclusion: The "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints", as Mormons call themselves, is not a Christian organization, and it isn't based on the Bible, or the God of the Bible. Mormon leaders are well aware that if these and many other facts were known to potential converts they would have very few converts. The missionaries may be well-dressed and nice young people, but many may not know the above facts or have been well trained to keep them hidden.

To The Mormon: This information has been given to you in love. We testify to you that it is accurate and honest. The people and programs of the Mormon Church may appear good, but the best organisation and a sincere faith misdirected away from the God of the Bible will not save you. Become a seeker of the truth about the real Jesus Christ. The President of the Mormon Church, Gordon B. Hinckley, admitted in mid-1999 the Mormon Jesus Christ is not the Jesus Christ of the Bible, but a different Jesus (see 2 Corinthians 11:4). Remember those missionary lessons before you joined the church? Were you asked to make an eternal decision, based on incomplete and inaccurate information? We urge you to call out to the One True God and ask Him to reveal Himself to you, and ask the One True Jesus Christ to apply His sacrifice on the cross to your sins personally.

To the Ex-Mormon: We know you were told there is no hope or help for you outside the Mormon Church. They were wrong! Hundreds of thousands have left and received help. Some are now available to help you, along with others who have studied this and similar cults. Please don't give up on the true God because of the errors of the Mormon Church. We especially recommend that you renounce the false baptism you may have had because of the spiritual ties and bondages this brings on members. If you have never requested that your name be removed from membership, we urge you to do so in writing. Leaving your name on their list directly aids their missionary efforts, and remains a bondage on you. If you need spiritual help, please write to us in confidence.

To Christians & others who care: If you have a burden to reach Mormons and inform the public about the real doctrines of Mormonism, we need your help. We have materials to share. All donations are used without personal gain. People deserve to have complete and accurate information before making decisions that will determine their eternal destiny!

Tragically many Mormons are not fully aware of the doctrines and history of their own church. The Mormon Church claims to have the truth, so it must be open to honest investigation. It does not show up in a good light. If something is true it can stand being questioned. If it is not true it needs to be questioned!
