

InStyle

A full-page photograph of Katherine Heigl, smiling and wearing a green one-shoulder dress, is the central focus of the cover. She is wearing large hoop earrings and a bracelet on her left wrist.

KATHERINE HEIGL

On Fame, Family
& What's Next

FALL'S BEST
BAGS, SHOES & MORE!

2010
BEAUTY
BLACK BOOK

Top Salons,
Spas & Services

MAJOR DISCOUNTS!

OCTOBER 2010 INSTYLE.COM

Get Gorgeous Fast!

* BEAUTY
SHORTCUTS

* SEXY HAIR
MADE EASY

* 28 DAYS OF
CUTE
OUTFITS

Bonus Section!

188
STYLE SECRETS

Insider Tricks, Steals & Picks

At Any Age Bow Blouses

Fashion Director Cindy Weber Cleary translates a look from the fall collections into a classic outfit anyone can wear

Once a staple of '80s power dressing, this silky top has been given new life. The updated version has a soft bow instead of a prim little tie and—depending on what you pair it with—can be sophisticated or demure. After all, it works as well with leather pants as it does with a ladylike suit. But this is an instance in which those who are older should add some edge to avoid looking dowdy. Ladies, kick up your heels!

Metal and rhinestone earrings, Suzanna Dai, $125; 813-251-1706

Silk blouse, Hunter Dixon, $275; hunterdixon.com

Yes! Keep all the color on top.

No! Leave it to 'Dallas' reruns.

the runway

A tapered skirt is sexier than a straight one.

Heels are a must so the look's not matronly.

MOSSIMO

my way

Leather sandals, BCBGeneration, $89; at Dillard's

Knit skirt, Ann Taylor, $78; ann.taylor.com

Calfskin belt, Be & D, $225; beandd.com

Metallic leather bag, Rebecca Minkoff, $350; at Bloomingdale's

HOW TO STYLE IT Cool heels—such as platforms or ankle boots—are key. No comfort pumps, please. Add a dark high-waist pencil skirt. For the longest, leanest line, match shoes to skirt and opaque hose. The bright blouse and bow draw attention to your face and upper body (a boon if you're bottom-heavy!); shiny earrings keep it there. Lipstick required.

Metal and rhinestone earrings.
Suzanna Dai, $125.
813-251-1706.