YOUR WAY

1. DON'T SHY AWAY FROM SHEER

We love the cream-and-nude color scheme, and the fact that the dress's shape is forgiving has its appeal.

VPL silk organza dress, price on request; 212-966-2145

2. LAYER UNDERNEATH

All you want is a blank canvas so the sheer dress stands out. This simple shirtdress works, and an opaque slip dress (white, nude) would, too.

JIL SANDER NAVY white cotton dress, $375; 212-447-9200

3. GO FOR A LITTLE SHINE

The delicate beading against the tulle, the ribbon tie... it's all in keeping with this pretty, diaphanous look.

SUZANNA DAI tulle and rhinestone necklace, $200; suzannadai.com

4. USE AN EVENING CLUTCH

The shine on this one makes it look like a piece of jewelry, and its delicacy keeps it in tune with the overall effect.

CELESTINA shell clutch, $195; Gail Rothwell, 631-324-6666

5. AVOID HEAVY FEET

No pumps, please: The openness of the sandals keeps the look light from head to toe.

LOEFFLER RANDALL leather and mesh strappy sandals, $550; loeffler-randall.com

3. GO FOR A LITTLE SHINE

The delicate beading against the tulle, the ribbon tie . . . it's all in keeping with this pretty, diaphanous look.

SUZANNA DAI tulle and rhinestone necklace, $200; suzannadai.com
