LOFT Makes Statement Jewels Worth Every Penny

SEP 13, 2013 2:00 PM

Giuliana Rancic — a lady who knows a thing or two about making statements — enlisted one of her favorite designers, Suzanna Dai, to create two necklaces and a pair of statement earrings for a LOFT collaboration. The result? A tasteful bib piece equipped with just enough stones to turn heads, rose, crystal-encrusted drop earrings, and, our favorite, a long chain to play up a casual tee and jeans.

The best part is the set — retailing at $39.50 to $69.50 — is part of the "Live In Pink" movement, which supports The Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Sixty percent of your purchase will go to the cause, and, while that's enough to make you feel good, knowing that Giuliana Rancic approves of your look might also put a smile on your face.

Click ahead to lust over the images, and then shop online or in stores from September 30 until October 31.
