Joystick (2-Direction) Control of Linear Actuators

Functionality:

In this wiring configuration, 2-way joystick control is achieved by using a DPDT relay. The relay and joystick complete the control circuit to allow the actuator to extend and retract. Please note that this set up has a maximum current rating of 10A due to the rating on the joystick.