

The Birthday

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the title page. What do you see? A1: I see a gray mouse. I see flowers. I see a pond. I see a tree and bushes. I see a cat wearing a hat and carrying balloons. Q2: Where is the gray mouse? A2: The gray mouse is standing on a flower.	Q1: Who does the gray mouse see? A1: Possible answers: The gray mouse sees the cat. The gray mouse sees the dog. The gray mouse sees the monkey. The gray mouse sees the frog. The gray mouse sees the elephant. The gray mouse sees the bee. Q2: Where do you think the friends are going? Why? A2: Possible answers: They are going to a party. They are wearing party hats. They are bringing party things.	Q1: Did the gray mouse have a fun birthday? A1: Yes, the gray mouse had a very fun birthday. Q2: Why is the gray mouse happy in every picture? A2: Possible answers: The gray mouse is happy because it is his birthday. The gray mouse is happy because his friends had a party for him.

The Birthday

I see the cat.

I see the dog.