

We Can Eat the Plants

| Before Reading | During Reading | After Reading |
|--|--|---|
| Q1: Let's look at the cover. What do you see? A1: I see a farmer. I see two rabbits. Q2: What do you see in the farmer's basket? A2: Possible answers: I see carrots and corn. I see purple grapes. I see fruits and vegetables. I see lettuce and broccoli. | Q1: What is the farmer doing? A1: The farmer is picking food from his garden. Q2: What plant parts do we eat? A2: We eat the roots. We eat the stems. We eat the leaves. We eat the flowers. We eat the fruit. We eat the seeds. | Q1: What are some roots and stems that we eat? A1: Possible answers: We eat carrots and radishes. They are roots. We eat celery and asparagus. They are stems. Q2: What are some fruits and seeds that we eat? A2: Possible answers: We eat apples and grapes. They are fruits. We eat rice and corn. They are seeds. |

We Can Eat the Plants

We can eat the roots.

We can eat the stems.