

Apron Annie's Pies

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover and the title page. What is Apron Annie doing? A1: Apron Annie is rolling out the dough for her pies. She is making fruit pies. I see apples, cherries, a peach, a pear, and a plum. Yum! Q2: What is your favorite pie? A2: Answers will vary: I like pumpkin pie. My favorite is apple pie with ice cream.	Q1: Where is Apron Annie going with her 10 pies? A1: Apron Annie is going to sell her pies. Q2: What happens to Apron Annie's pies? A2: One by one, Apron Annie drops nine pies. She ends up with just one pie left.	Q1: Does Apron Annie sell her one pie? A1: No. Apron Annie got hungry and ate the last pie! Q2: Can you think of some way to help Apron Annie? A2: Answers will vary: I would tell Apron Annie to get a helper. Apron Annie could put her pies in big boxes and pull them in a wagon.

Apron Annie's Pies

Oh well, that's just fine.
I don't have ten,
but I still have nine.

Apron Annie had ten pies to sell.
But on her way out the door, one pie fell.

Apron Annie had nine pies to sell.
But on her way out the gate, one pie fell.

