

It's Tattling, Anita!

Text and photos by Carolina Cisneros

Anita was a big tattletale who liked to get involved in everybody's problems. She tattled so much that the other kids called her "Anita the Tattletale." She always complained to the teacher.

“Teacher, Joseph stuck his tongue out at me,” complained Anita.