

Pathways/Aventuras

Transition students from the 'early' to 'fluent' stages of literacy growth with Pathways/Aventuras! This new series of high-interest chapter books covers a wide range of fascinating nonfiction content. There are editable online reading lessons and writing activities for a range of flexible and responsive teaching options.

It is critical to students that they are supported to transition to more complex texts across the content areas - Sibberson and Bass

From the research...

Transitional readers need:

- high-interest content
- a new set of strategies for reading more complex texts
- support in understanding new elements/information
- to develop persistence in their reading

Readers will be delighted to find Nat the Ant and a surprise 4-page fold-out inside each book to help them stay on the right path as they read!
