

5783

In the Torah, Creation took place over 6,000 years ago. Because this calculation is approximately 3,780 years ahead of the secular calendar the year 2023 corresponds to the year 5783 in the Hebrew calendar.

* When certain holidays fall on Shabbat, a special Torah reading supplants the usual one. Because of this, and the fact that there are 54 Torah portions and only 52 weeks in the year, we occasionally double up and assign two Torah portions to one Shabbat.
