

WEBSTER'S TEA
ORGANIC
LOOSE LEAF

WHOLESALE

Hello!

Webster's Tea is owned and operated in Tauranga and all about delicious, organic, loose leaf tea.

When I arrived back from overseas with a newfound love for tea I found the tea here to be lacking. Low quality, tasteless tea bags were the norm at home, and in many cafés little attention was given to the mighty beverage. So I went about sourcing, importing, and blending teas to deliver a range of organic, loose leaf teas that look, smell and taste ridiculously good. Now Kiwis can ditch the bag at home and also enjoy a quality tea experience in cafés with Webster's Tea.

The production of our tea uses only organic products and is free of synthetic and harmful chemicals, fertilisers and pesticides. This means our certified organic teas are produced sustainably, are free of nasties, and better for you because of it - the way tea should be we reckon.

I'm thrilled that you're interested in Webster's Tea. Please find wholesale information and a price list overleaf. I hope you enjoy the samples and if you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Happy sipping,

VARIETIES

BLACK

A Kiwi fav, black tea is produced when withered tea leaves are rolled and oxidised causing the leaves to turn black.

Our organic selection of black teas honour the classics delivering full bodied and bold flavours that can be enjoyed with or without milk.

GREEN

Green tea is produced when tea leaves are exposed to heat just after harvesting and withering to stop the oxidation process – that's why the leaves retain their emerald colour. They are then rolled or twisted.

Our organic green teas produce a cup that's packed with antioxidants resulting in a healthy and delicious brew.

HERBAL

Dating back thousands of years to ancient China and Egypt, herbal teas have been used for their taste and healing properties.

Our caffeine free, organic, herbal teas are delicately balanced combining delicious herbs and spices. They're the perfect way to chill out.

ROOIBOS

Afrikaans for red bush, rooibos, is grown in a small area in South Africa off the Western Cape. The leaves of the bush are oxidised which produces a distinctive reddish brown colour and enhances the flavour.

Our organic rooibos teas are naturally sweet, caffeine free, and damn good for you. A guilt-free treat perfect any time of the day.
