

COOLUM

This photo of Coolum in 2004 (left) gives you an idea of the blank canvas we had to work with. It was so great to be able to make all decisions on the layout & design ourselves.

We put a lot of thought into how we could make Coolum 'romantic & rustic'. It has a great combination of old and new pieces to give it the 'rustic' & the corner spa in the modern bathroom looks over the courtyard & garden to give it the 'romantic'
