Resort 23: Kaleidoscopia Spirita

Kaleidoscope meaning beautiful form is the point of origin for Resort 23. A new dawn emerges, infinite light envelopes the spirit and a moment of reverie unfolds. This season Hannah delves deep into her natural terrain of fine art, drawing out creative possibilities and associations from the stain paintings of Helen Frankenthaler to the luminescence of James Turrell or the fluid motion of Milton Bacteria. This rich and varied visual landscape invites the eye to travel and the heart to soar. Vivid color and intense emotion are synonymous and through shade, pattern and texture Hannah is asking her woman to feel, to float, and to traverse a sublime universe.
