

A woman with a long braid, wearing a sleeveless, patterned dress with a pink sash, stands on a rocky beach looking out at the ocean. The water is clear and blue, and the sky is a pale blue.

In collaboration with traditional artisans, Indian hand block printing and dying continues to be at the center of the collection. With archival wood blocks selected and skilfully placed across silk habotai, soft cotton voile and fresh linen, this seasons prints draw on the motifs that represent birth, femininity and the honour of giving life. Vibrant, glowing colour is contrast with deep, rich tones.

Silhouettes reflect a desire to provide luxury in the everyday; ease, beauty and femininity. Cotton Lace and placed embroideries were added to the collection with a desire to create garments that are treasured by both maker and wearer.
