YOUR GUIDES

Lizzy Butler
South American Travel Extraordinaire

Lizzy has lived and worked with wine on both Argentina and Chile. She has been leading trips to South America for over 10 years. Her trips to Argentina and Chile have become renowned throughout the US wine trade.

Her genuine passion for South American wine and culture is evident from the moment you meet her. She's a foodie, fluent in Spanish, a trail runner, and has cultivated deep relationships with the winemakers and local purveyors. Originally from Boston, she now lives in Sausalito, California.

Valeria Guarnieri
Our Girl on the Ground, and favorite Argentine

Valeria's work with Pourtal combines her vast experience as a designer and artist and an undeniable understanding of her home country of Argentina. Day-to-day, Valeria works as a designer, primarily designing wine labels.

Valeria's passion for the wine industry and living life make her the ideal tour guide for our Pourtal trips! Many of our trip attendees' highlights are Valeria's painting class among the vines. She adores trekking to the mountains and gets inspiration from the Andes energy to transfer to a connection experience with creativity.
