YOUR GUIDES

Lizzy Butler
South American Travel Extraordinaire

Lizzy has lived and worked with wine in both Argentina and Chile. She has been leading trips to South America for over 10 years. Lizzy's passion for South American wine and culture is evident from the moment you meet her. She's a foodie, fluent in Spanish, a trail runner, and has cultivated deep relationships with the winemakers and local purveyors.

Valeria Guarnieri
Our Girl on the Ground, and favorite Argentine

Valeria's combines her vast experience as a designer and artist with an undeniable understanding of her home country of Argentina. Her passion for the wine industry and living life makes her the ideal tour guide for our Pourtal trips! Many past trip attendees' highlights are Valeria's painting classes. She adores trekking to the mountains and finds inspiration from the Andes energy.
