MEN'S UNDERWEAR STYLE FOR YOUR AGE

Which men's underwear should I wear? Is men's briefs the right choice for me or thong underwear that is in demand among other men? I am XX years old and am looking for underwear which is suitable for my age, please help! These days, you'd find Quora, Reddit, Yahoo and other such portals filled with such questions that men have in regard to their underneath fashion. There's nothing wrong about it and in fact, it is always good to be a little curious when something like your male anatomy is involved.

With more than 10 respective men's apparel styles and plus their variants, it is always a bit confusing to which style is apt for a particular age group. If you'll see around you, you'd find that every age group is wearing what they feel like without giving it a piece of their mind. Like we talked about the different body shapes as well as the different occasions in the last edition, we'll be talking about the different age groups in this article.

POST-ADOLESCENTS (18-21 YEARS OLD)

Post-adolescence is the stage that falls after the adolescence where the boys go through the transition towards adulthood. Boys falling in this category have faced a lot of physical and psychological changes. All these changes will lead in building their actual personality in the adulthood stage and thereafter.

Once out of their teens, boys have a lot of things that they focus on. From focusing on their physique to making their career, everything seems to be taking its actual shape. Where some boys hit the gym in order to get an appealing physique because they're all set to go to college, others have their own idea of adulthood and they work towards that.

One of the biggest achievements that guys in this range find is the independence that they get from their legal guardians and parents. So, they now know that nobody is watching them or would object if they try to do things their own way. Finding it the perfect time to experiment, bikini underwear for men or sexy jockstraps are the styles that they go for. Well, what matters to them is the conventional support with all the sex appeal that is needed.

YOUNG ADULTS (22-35 YEARS OLD)

Stepping out of the teenage, the young adult men or the male youth are guys who are finally settling up and finding their prospects in life. This is also the age group that is sexually very active and wants to commit to a relationship. The young adults change in terms of their body, voice, tastes and choices. They are experimental when it comes to making love with their partners and are crazy about pleasurable activities.

Fantasizing about the different ways to make love to your partner gets you in the experimenting mode where you try different underwear styles from the sensually revealing men's thongs to the skimpy g-strings. Some men also go the extent of doing role plays where they want to enact being a Firefighter, Snowman, Police Officer or even an Inmate.

Apart from the exotic underwear styles, the youth category loves to keep it supportive down there in order to make the best of the impression. Hence, they look up to the conventional styles or the revealing ones that do not compromise on the functionality front.

ADULTS (36 AND ABOVE)

Now you've reached the age where you can style your beard the way you want and pull off a dapper look without much trying. However, in the late 30s men face a lot of problem on the sexual front. They might look younger as they grow old but they start to face problems in erection. The focus in terms of clothing takes a shift from the supportive end to the comfort zone. Eventually, you'll realize that functional jockstraps and traditional briefs are okay but the actual pleasure is in having something less constrictive and more spacious down there, more like roomy boxer shorts.

Now, you'll be focusing more on the quality of the underclothing articles you buy rather than the fashionable designs or the luxurious appeals. Men, as they grow older can experience soft fabrics such as lace in styles like jockstraps to keep their butts from drooping and skin from sagging. This would keep up their sex appeal as well as their comfort level.

WOMEN'S INTERPRETATION OF MEN'S UNDERWEAR

WOMEN'S INTERPRETATION OF MEN'S UNDERWEAR

Was it a big turn off for you when your girl wore those granny panties for your first date? Well, if you think that it just works one way, lemme tell you that women too get picky when they look at your underneath fashion and find it to be too regular and boring. You might club the women race as one, but they are as unique as we guys are. So, some of them might like the sexy lacy briefs on you while others would be okay with the boxers and on in extremely extinct cases, some would do just bear the situation and get over with.

It is very important for you to understand that women can be as judgmental as we are and have their own idea of a perfect date or specifically what happens at the end of the date. So, if you want your pleasurable moments to be actually pleasurable, you gotta get into the psyche of women and put it right down there.

Just to help you out my friends, I have compiled a list of interpretations of what women think of your fashion underwear.

MEN'S BOXER SHORTS

What? Do men still wear these? Men's boxer underwear are also called as old school boxers because of the extremely comfortable appeal and airy or spacious construction. Why old school? Well, if you'd notice the prints available in the market, you'd find that sometimes you'd be SpongeBob Square Pants or sometimes you'll be Pikachu or Ash.

You wouldn't want to be stuck with your school-time underwear and show it off to your partner while getting closer. You can surely wear it when you're alone and you feel like feeling going back in time, but women would treat you like a schoolboy who's trying to shy away with what he's holding down there.

According to a study done by Mensuas on what women think about men's underwear styles, only 2% felt that boxers are appealing, while others believed it to be nothing more than a baggage of extra fabric on men.

MEN'S BOXER BRIEFS

Provider of the best of both the worlds (boxers and briefs), men's boxer brief underwear looks quite hot on your body if you are toned, sexy and muscular. Muscular doesn't mean that you look like one of that bodybuilder guys. Be the common guy with the chiseled body and who loves to stay in shape. The fashion style also does a lot for you in return to what you give to it. It defines what you have below the belt as well as defines your legs for the perfect toned legs*.

(*only if you buy the right size for yourself)

Women love how you look and specifically your junk looks in the contoured pouch that makes it look enhanced.

However, if you land up wearing the ancient pair with stretched out fabric and is flooded with holes, you'll be in bad luck for the next..forever.

Just keep them tidy, fashionable, and supportive with the appealing designs that'll be appreciated by your woman.

MEN'S BRIEFS

Coming down to the tightly whitey briefs or the most conventional men's underwear style that has the extra of everything. The extra fabric, extra support, extra forming fit, and more. When you think about briefs, the very first thought that comes to one's mind is a pale looking, white colored and oldie underpants that have lasted a century to be here with us today and has been passed on from generations. However, the modern briefs are way trendier, sexier, lightweight and more functional.

Available in a plethora of colors, cuts, designs and pouch options, you can make your underneath fashion a lot sexier, racier and spicier. Showing off ample skin and putting that protruded bulge for the show, who wouldn't love to be in those briefs? Women would surely be tempted and teased with the sexy as well as a raunchy pair of sheer briefs.

Make sure you don't do something that makes you feel comfortable and just avoids the old, stale and baggy briefs if you want to score some points.

MEN'S THONGS & G-STRINGS

How did you react when you saw your woman wearing those skimpily sexy thongs for the first time? A bit of surprise and then a lot of amusement led by excitement and concluded with passionate moments. Thong underwear or its skimpier version known as g-strings took a lot of time to be accepted by the males themselves but eventually they have accepted the style. Likewise, women are getting accustomed to men wearing thongs but it is not a popular practice.

Like it was mentioned in the beginning of the article that every woman is not same, some might like the idea of being racy and lustful while you're the exotic pairs whereas; others might be turned off with the glimpse itself.

In the case of being full proof, you have to figure out whether your woman loves the idea of you wearing the style and she being on the beholder side. Not all women love the idea of thongs but you must surely try them on for their practical uses such as no underwear lines, confidence and more.
