Color code for each day

It is not just the attire that matters, colors have a significant influence on how you feel and how you look. The shades that you wear is just a powerful visual cue, but has an enormous influence on the brain as well. So, listed below are the hues that according to studies are perfect for the various days of a week.

Monday Melancholy calls for something that is subtle and classy, so, Black and Grey are perfect.

Tuesday threat calls for the super-charged Red.

Wednesday worries need the calming effect of Green.

Thursday treat requires the special treatment of Violet.

Friday fun needs the trigger of the tender pink.

Saturday seduction wants the masculine charm of Black and Navy.

Sunday solitude lacks the energy of Orange.

Monday Melancholy

"Today will be one of those days when even my coffee needs a coffee."

Color Code: White or Grey

"If Monday had a face, I would punch it", this is how most of us feel on the first day of the week. You can either consider this day dull and gloomy or you can dip in the glitter and sparkle all day. As per the numerology, white is the color for the day, but you can go with the lighter hues like grey and check patterns as well.

The white button down shirt coupled with a black trouser and a suit is the best option for the day. This is the easiest look to pull off any man around. Pair a sleek black tie and well-polished dress shoes with it.

Even the shirt teamed up with the grey suit will radiate a professional and stylish vibe without trying too hard. Navy tie will look perfect with it. Even though the dress code for the day means serious business, all Mondays need is the spirit of Fridays. Add some undivided energy to your mood while still keeping your focus sharp with a sexy men's underwear. The Good Devil Lace Grey can give your week a fresh start while still keeping the weekend fun intact.

Tuesday Threat

"Tuesday isn't so bad...It's a sign that you somehow survived Monday."

Color Code: Red

Red is the color of the tieless Tuesday. The classic combination of black and red is the first thing that comes to mind when this color is mentioned. You can pair a red or burgundy shirt with a black suit and trouser. The footwear is the mirror of your entire personality. The black colored lace up Oxford is ideal for every formal event.

This is not the hue that can suit every sort of personality. So, try to give a casual touch to your quintessential corporate dressing skill. Pair a white and red shirt with a grey suit. You have just started getting into the spirit of the workload. So, avoid wearing a tie with the attire. The right ensemble can open all doors. Wear a sleek pocket square that matches your shirt. You can even go for the chic style of the cuff-links. What do you prefer wearing when it comes to underneath styling? Boxers or briefs? All progress takes place when you come out of your comfort zone. Try the sensual style of men's bikini this time. So, do not settle, strive for excitement with the high cuts of Secret Male Slip Bikini Red.

Wednesday Worries

“Wednesday is Latin for Almost Friday.”

Color Code: Green

It may appear difficult to pull off, but Green is one of the most versatile colors for suits. Even though colored suits are considered informal, this shade is going to stand out in meetings or occasions. A white shirt paired with a subtle green suit is just perfect to liven up the monotonous Wednesday at work. The feel of the weekend has already started to sink in, so, you can go for chinos instead of trousers.

Up the style quotient by accessorizing this ensemble appropriately. The golden shade is a natural match for the dark green hue. The brass cufflinks, as well as wristwatches, made up of stainless steel, will give a sophisticated touch to the playful vibe. From the stuck-up and serious look to the after work drink, the pinch of green can go all the way perfectly. A contrasting pocket square and monk straps made of suede leather will give your look a flair of sophistication.

You are halfway through the week and the fact cannot be denied that exhaustion has already started creeping in. What can keep you going? Try the Daniel Alexander Slip Thong Green. Feeling something so sexy down there will cause a stir in your tedious day.

Thursday Treat

“You say Thursday, I say it’s Friday eve.”

Color Code: Yellow or Violet

The bedazzling yellow can leave you on the fence when it comes to formal dressing. So, instead of beating around the bushes, go for the alpha masculine violet. A tolerable Thursday is all one can wish for as it is one of the most important days of the week. It's all about business, the deals are closed and the strategies are made. So, the attire should be a bit relaxing.

Instead of sticking with strict formals, go for semi-formals. The white v-neck t-shirt paired with a violet suit and chinos can effortlessly cut a dash.

Mixing the laid back accessories can help you dress up to the nines. A white pocket square along with a leather crafted wrist watch can toughen you up for the challenges of the day in much-needed style. The idea is to keep you cool and look a sight at the same time. Go for an airy pair of underneath article that can take care of your manhood all day long. Since yellow is another suitable color for the day, you can try the Addicted Contrast Mesh Brief Yellow. The mesh fabric allows air flow without compromising coverage.

Friday Fun

"Friday. The golden child of the weekdays. The superhero of workweek. The welcome wagon to the weekend."

Color Code: Pink

Don't get carried away by the jump of the joy, you are still very much at work. The attire should be versatile enough to get transformed from the morning meeting to the night out plans within minutes. Pink is one such shade that is relaxed with the attitude of a real gentleman. You can ditch the suit look for the day. Just a pink shirt with black formal trouser can turn heads. Choosing the right color combination is the key when it comes to pink. The shirt should be paired with a darker trouser as well as with the suit, if you are wearing one. It should not be other way around.

A classic shade of loafers will give you a fat chance to be back to the salt mines with style and comfort. A sports watch will come together to offer a sharp uniform for Friday. Gear yourself up for the luck of the draw in the evening with Good Devil Contour Cheek Boxer Pink and spruce up your weekend plans.

Saturday Seduction

"It's Saturday night... It's time to be a hero and rescue some wine trapped in the bottle."

Color Code: Black and navy

The darker hues are the color of the day. Nothing can beat the combination of the black t-shirt and blue jeans. The classic combination is ideal for all sorts of personalities. A pair of white sneaker can complete your ensemble. The accessories complement the outfit, it is still advisable not to wear very bedazzling bracelets and necklaces. Just an elegant style of sports wrist watch can literally take you anywhere. Whether you are hitting the discotheque or you'll stay up all night playing cool, you need to stay cozy down there. So, choose the right men's underwear style. Daddy Boxer Trunk Blue Petroleum is the ideal way to stay in sync with the color code keeping the comfort up a notch.

Even the graphic tees paired with a sleek jacket and jeans or even solid colored chinos are perfect for the fun-filled night out. The key is to make sure that everything fits perfectly. Saturday is all about big shirt, messy hair, coffee and music. So, do not restrict yourself in the name of fashion. Wear anything that makes you comfortable and let the world be your oyster.

Sunday Solitude

"Sunday. Take it slow and give your soul a chance to catch up with your body."

Color Code: Orange

Sunday is a perfect day for refueling yourself for the upcoming challenges of the week ahead. While orange is bright, happy and uplifting. This is the reason, this shade is preferred for the last day of the week. Whether you are planning a barbecue in the backyard or you are spending the entire day watching Netflix, the attire should be slouchy enough to be comfortable. Pistol Pete Neon Short Orange paired with Pistol Pete Metro Tank W/Lining is ideal to keep you chill and easy.

You need not try very hard even if you have plans of going out. A lightweight t-shirt paired with jeans and sneakers is enough. Team it up with a sleek jacket or even cardigan and it will leave your appearance at the cutting edge of style.
