The Late-Afternoon Lounge

Mirror the Sunsets

Pinks ranging from coral to blush adorn the throw pillows and echo the sky at dusk. Plus, variations in shades ensure the palette doesn't swing too sweet. (Having a glass of rosé on hand doesn't hurt, either.)

Take the Edge Off

The white table's round shape and stacked circles help relax all the linear woven pieces. Even the rounded rattan side table, with its slightly imperfect reed pattern, loosens things up.

Choose the Whitewashed Wicker

The woven sectional appears bleached by the sun, but because it's made of resin—not natural wood—it will wear well year after year.
