

Inside an East Hampton Beach House as Sophisticated as It Is Sunny

Dering Hall Contributor
Lifestyle

f In a newly built house in East Hampton, designed for long summer weekends and large family gatherings, Dan Scotti updates the grace of beach estates of the past with clean-lined modern furnishings, a neutral palette, and a refined approach to luxury and ease. t This article originally appeared in Dering Hall.

A Sophisticated Beach House by Dan Scotti PETER MURDOCK PHOTOGRAPHY

The rear facade of the house; the umbrellas and chaises are by David Sutherland, and the cushions are upholstered in Perennials fabrics.

A Sophisticated Beach House by Dan Scotti PETER MURDOCK PHOTOGRAPHY

On the terrace, the custom sofas by Dune and the vintage Paul Frankl rattan chairs are upholstered in Perennials fabrics; the concrete table is a custom design, and a salvaged train traffic mirror hangs over the fireplace.