

A Texas Farmhouse Honors Both Past And Present

HOME TOURS | BY MAILE PINGEL | June 8, 2018

Old Florida Land Hosts A Modern Coral Gables Home

HOME TOURS | BY JEFF TURRENTINE | June 20, 2018

The pool and backyard are surrounded by a grove of mature pin oaks, while the teak table and dining chairs, covered in Perennials fabric from David Sutherland, are from The Bright Group.

Inside A Florida Home Inspired By Relaxation And Play

HOME TOURS | BY MINDY PANTIEL | June 22, 2018

Interior designer Leah Muller fashioned her clients' living room sofa using a practical Perennials fabric and followed suit with a pair of striped armchairs adorned in Kravet and ottomans enveloped in a Hunt Slonem fabric for Lee Jofa. The Hickory Chair wicker club chairs sport a Jim Thompson fabric, the white-lacquer coffee table is by Oomph, and the sisal rug is from Florida Floor Fashions.
