Has aluminum furniture ever looked so inviting? These classic forms can be covered in any of the 145 special-order fabrics or in classic white, as seen here.

KNOWING YOUR ANGLES

Barcelona-based designer Mario Ruiz believes the magic is in the minutiae: "I am a designer who is very attentive to details," he explains. With the Paloma Collection by Mario Ruiz, he joins the ranks of other designers such as Toan Nguyen, David Sutherland and Clodagh who have crafted an outdoor line for RH. "The construction of the Paloma Collection is based on a complex set of small connection details that build its identity," the designer says. "It has an elegant aesthetic that fits into any architecture and style." In other words, it works at any angle. From $540, Westfield UTC, rh.com -Phebe Wahl
