OUTDOOR ARTISANS

Restoration Hardware's latest collab with dynamic duo David and Ann Sutherland will keep you elegantly outdoors all summer.

David and Ann Sutherland, the Dallas-based couple behind two of America's style powerhouses—Perennials Fabrics and David's eponymous to-the-trade furniture showrooms—have paired up once again with home furnishings empire Restoration Hardware. David launched the Olema Collection (from $896), sleek teak outdoor pieces that are just as elegant as any of the lines he makes solely for decorators and architects, with a dramatic play of angles and reclining raked chair backs for leisurely sun-seekers. "Inspired by French design of the 1930s yet utterly modern, Olema's linear form delivers the perfect angle of repose," shares Sutherland. Meanwhile, Ann has created the perfect pairing, the Palm Beach Pillow Collection. Jacquard-woven pillow covers, rendered in her own luxurious, gold standard Perennials fabrics, come in a bevy of colorful stripes that will add a beach house feel to any patio. RH Plano, The Gallery at the Shops at Willow Bend, rh.com —Nadia Dabbakeh
