HUNT SLOVEM

As this issue flies out the door, we are deep into the 2018 iteration of Texas Design Week Houston — our second year — held Monday, April 23 through Friday, April 27. The PaperCity Design Awards kicks off TXDW Monday, April 23, and will be held at Tilman Fertitta's stunning new Post Oak hotel, with its top-notch, blue-chip art collection that includes works by Frank Stella, Donald Sultan, Alex Katz, Robert Motherwell, Friedel Dzubas, Howard Hodgkin, Joseph Glasco, and Rachel Hovnanian, among others. We couldn't be more thrilled. PaperCity Design Awards judges this year are Miles Redd, Alex Papachristidis, Joe Nahem, Schumacher creative director Dara Caponigro, Ray Booth of McAlpine, and Gen and Benjamin Sohr of Pencil & Paper. On pages 42 and 44 is the TXDW schedule of personal appearances. In the mix are Ellie Cullman, Marshall Watson, Corey Damen Jenkins, Ray Booth, Tori Mellott with Traditional Home, Nathan Turner, and Gen and Benjamin Sohr, as well as a sure-to-be-riveting conversation with William Middleton, author of the new de Menil blockbuster book published by Knopf, along with Michèle Gerber Klein, author of the new Charles James tome published by Rizzoli. Both will be at a TXDW panel at Neiman Marcus. For the first time, we have invited sponsors to share TXDW with us. Joining us are Circa Lighting, David Sutherland Showroom, Wells Abbott Showroom, The Shade Store, New Orleans Auction Galleries, Biscuit, Neiman Marcus, Elegant Additions, Heritage Auctions, Traditional Home magazine, Milieu, River Oaks District, Baccarat, Whitten & Proctor Fine Art Conservation, Luxe, and Construction Concepts. There's still room to join the lineup. April is Art + Design all month.
