

These Are the Decorating Essentials Designer Celerie Kemble Loves Most From the 2020 Kips Bay Show House

The Palm Beach native knows a thing or two about beach-chic style.

BY THE EDITORS OF VERANDA JAN 24, 2020

Cue the cabana stripes, pink-and-green palettes, and vintage rattan: Palm Beach is known, among other things, for its ultra-sophisticated beachy style. For a fresh take on that well-documented look, we asked Celerie Kemble, one of Palm Beach's most design-pedigreed natives, to share her favorite finds from the 2020 Kips Bay Palm Beach Show House.

"I am looking forward to seeing my hometown interpreted by so many designers I admire," says Kemble, who is serving as this year's Opening Night Preview Party Chairwoman. (Find more information about and purchase tickets to the January 31 event here.)

"Palm Beach provides such an opportunity for designers to create entertaining spaces that flow from the indoors to the outdoors, so I am thrilled to see those great ideas from this year's house," she adds.

The 2020 Kips Bay Palm Beach Show House is open to the public for tours February 1 through March 1. Read on to discover some of Celerie's decorating must-haves from the rooms designed by this year's all-star team.

Sutherland's Continuous Line Lounge Chair

COURTESY OF SUTHERLAND

"This modern shape would look beautiful poolside at a traditional Spanish Colonial house or a clean and contemporary one," says Kemble. "Its versatility is endless."

Find these streamlined lounge chairs in the pool pavilion designed by Nashville-based designer Jonathan Savage.