

contract

june 2011

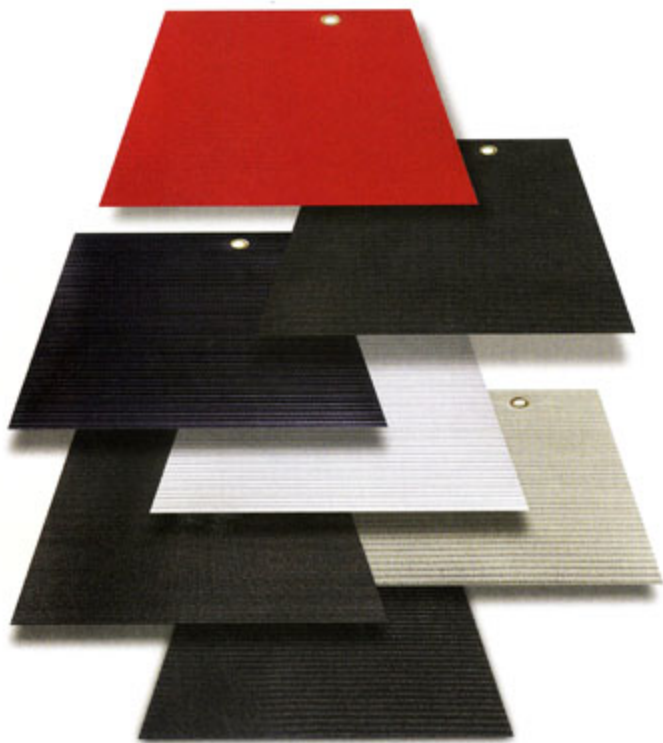

on the rise

Young designers and design firms
emerge with skillful, inspired interiors

Perennials Fabrics

Color Pops, the new collection of contemporary textiles from Perennials Fabrics, includes a rich mix of peppy patterns and solids in vibrant hues. Swoop gives the impression of raised eyebrows, while Swish offers a bold brushstroke repeat. Swizzle is gentle like a spring breeze, and Soft Rock represents river rocks in 100 percent acrylic velvet. All patterns are available in a variety of colorways. www.perennialsfabrics.com Space No. 1800
Reader Service No. 219

Edelman Leather

Inspired by rain on asphalt, "Matte and Gloss," the new Edelman Leather collection, juxtaposes matte quilted leathers against others with a glossy sheen in a play of smooth and embossed striped surfaces. Ideal uses include wall panels and tone-on-tone upholstery applications. www.edelmanleather.com
Space No. 1873D Reader Service No. 221

Rocky Mountain Hardware

Designer Roger Thomas pays tribute to French style in his new Paris Collection of bronze-casted door locksets and cabinet hardware. All items in the collection exude a nostalgic feel with a 17th- and 18th-century flair. Perfect for a luxurious hospitality application or wherever high style is needed, Paris contains 90 percent recycled materials and is SCS Certified, as are all the manufacturer's collections. www.rockymountainhardware.com
Space No. 1-108
Reader Service No. 220

Sutherland

Sutherland weaves high-style design with a transitional aesthetic in the Classic Wovens collection of seating. The outdoor furnishings are meant to coordinate with the manufacturer's existing lines while reinterpreting popular iconic designs. The woven synthetic pieces merge clean lines and impressive silhouettes with rich textures. www.sutherlandfurniture.com
Space No. 1800 Reader Service No. 222