An audio magazine
of contemporary culture
& Christian conviction

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Charles C. Camosy on how contemporary bioethical discourse increasingly prohibits explicitly theological reflection
- 3 O. Carter Snead on the assumptions about human nature embedded in the laws and policies that constitute “public bioethics”
- 4 Matt Feeney on how the dynamics of the “college admissions process” have encouraged a spirit of “competitive parenting”
- 5 Margarita Mooney on the unique attributes of the liberal arts, and how the alternatives have redefined the ends of education
- 6 Louis Markos on the essential gifts to the Church from Plato and Platonic thought (and why those gifts are under-appreciated)
- 7 Alan Jacobs on how reading books by authors who are no longer with us can promote a more tranquil spirit

Many of the books we reference are available from our friends at Eighth Day Books: www.eighthdaybooks.com or 1.800.841.2541.
