LIMITED EDITION POOL PARTY

Luxury Antipodean brand Baina has extended its organic cotton-towel collection to welcome a limited-edition Roman pool towel in Cedar & Sand, $110, featuring earthy tones in the label's signature chequerboard design. Inspired by seaside holidays on New Zealand's west-coast beaches, it's the perfect summer accessory. SHOPBAINA.COM

FRENCH FLAVOUR

With skyline views from its location on the ninth floor of Adelaide's new Sofitel, French restaurant Garçon Bleu is set to become the city's freshest gourmet destination. Its Michelin-star credentials are accompanied by divine interiors designed by Carl Almeida of P49Deesign. SOFITELADELAIDE.COM.AU

yarra valley treat

This festive season, delight the foodie in your life with a gift box comprising four tins of deluxe caviar, two mother-of-pearl spoons and a bespoke tin opener, all from specialist producer Yarra Valley Caviar. The bundles start from $45 and come with tasting notes and serving suggestions — they can even be customised.

spanish evolution

Bring a touch of the Mediterranean to your outdoor space with Spanish brand Oside, to be stocked in Australia exclusively at Robert Plumb from December. Oside's innovative collections are renowned for their timeless elegance and focus on durable and sustainable materials. Among the ranges on offer will be No12 (pictured above), which utilises tubular aluminium shapes and wire rods to provide a modern interpretation of wicker furniture.
