Newton Running announces 2017 Ambassador Team

BOULDER, Colorado —January 13, 2017— Newton Running announced the roster for its 2017 Ambassador program today. Ambassadors represent Newton’s connection to a larger community of runners. The group, which was culled from more than 860 applications, is nearly 100 people strong and comprises athletes, students, new runners, elite age groups, teachers, coaches, professionals, mothers, fathers, philanthropists and more. Newton is proud to be represented by this diverse team of enthusiastic brand ambassadors across the U.S.

Ambassadors were recruited into two groups. Social Ambassadors are highly engaged with an online community, and share their training and racing stories with engaged fans. Community Ambassadors proudly represent Newton Running in their local communities by embodying Newton’s core values and encouraging others to experience the feel and performance of a run in Newtons.

Congratulations to the 2017 Newton Running Ambassador Team!
