The false story of La Totale

Saturday, March 3, 2018 :

« I am swaying in the club, on the dance floor in my most beautiful backless jumpsuit/romper, when the bottom of my belly reminds me that I'm at my 5th beer and it's time to that I go «to powder my nose ».

I see the queue of 5 girls who are in line, having the same idea. But on the other hand it seems like they have decided after their « double pee » completed to really redo the make up. It's long ... and I'm starting to be in a hurry.

... [...] [...] [...] (waiting)

I can not anymore. When the place is finally free I rush with impetus into the toilet and slams the door. Of course, it comes back on me like a spring because the lock is broken. It will be necessary that I hold it by pissing.

Never mind. My whole body is claiming the unloading of the burden when I realize that ... no ... yes ... this backless romper/jumpsuit I love it as much as I hate it ... How am I going to do it? I'm throwing a «Can someone help me? », the case is not going to be easy/simple. There is no choice, this is an emergency, i tear everything off. »

This is the most memorable swing I made that night in the club, naked, in the toilet. When the door were wide open and where i have got frightened on the public toilet and in my favorite romper/jumpsuit.

Since that day, I did not wear a romper/jumpsuit until March 2019, the day I decided to create La Totale.

Now our best suits are tamed, and equipped with a crotch opening system, so that never again, this garment humiliates us in this way. Adèle - CEO La Totale

The Totale opens the rompers and frees the women

«You must suffer to be beautiful»: here is a beautiful injunction of the past century! By 2019, men and women (and all those in between) should not have to choose between style and comfort.

La Totale now offers different models of rompers equipped with a clever opening system at the crotch, to enjoy the day without the need to undress completely at every detour via the toilets ...

«We all have a humiliating story to tell because of a romper.

Mine is particularly, I would not say more.»

COMBI-RENÉE

COMBI-RENÉE

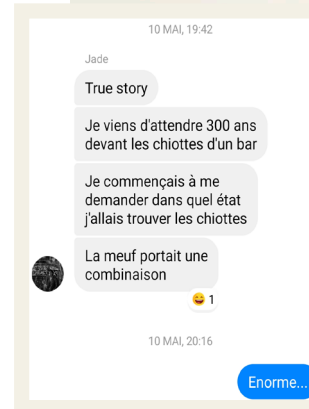

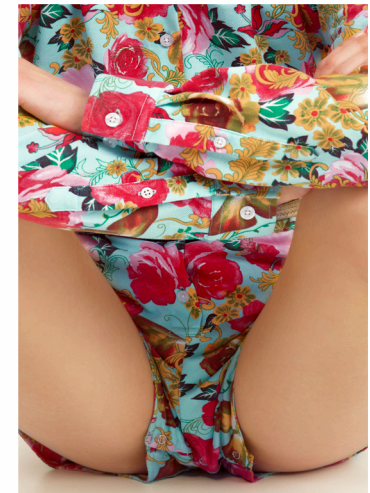

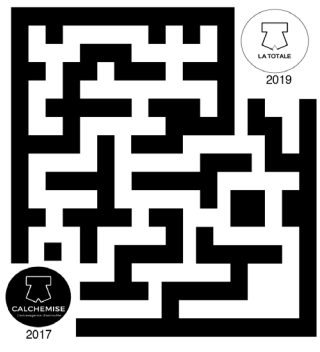

The true story of La Totale

The first model of La Totale is born in 2019, while i was working on Calchemise (a brand of one-piece shirt-underpants, a kind of elegant body for men). And believe it or not, it's the obsessive and incessant worry of Calchemise men to the question «how am I going to number two?» which finally decided me to create La Totale.

Because of course we started by answering these men: «well as your girlfriend when she wears a romper/jumpsuit/playsuit actually!», But far from enough to convince them, it finally turned out that the development of Calchemise seemed impossible without a solution to this strategic problem ... Calchemises thus quickly have 3 small buttons in the crotch.

I then realized with amazement that the women had always agreed to have to contort and find themselves naked in the bathroom to wear a full garment, while the men had almost immediately forced us to rethink the Calchemise for the respect for their comfort. I must admit that it shocked me. That we have never thought about a solution to make this women's clothing more comfortable. As if Women were conditioned to accept suffering for the sake of style.

In 2019, this could not last. That's why, inspired by the model of Calchemise, I decided to create the first combi-shorts (romper/jumpsuit/playsuit) with easy opening system in the crotch, and to name it, the Combi-Renée (the reborn). As the day of the unexpected revival of the Women also have a digestive system, their clothes must take this into account.

The perfect combination between style and functionality

The style :

For the first model, the Combi-Renée, inspired by Calchemise, (the father of La Totale), we started with a long-sleeved shirt in cotton poplin, to design an elite playsuit. The sleeves are roll-up, to allow a short-sleeved look. A lapel can also be done on the legs, to adapt the length of the shorts according to the occasions. We have declined in 8 different colors, from the most basic to the most pop.

The opening system :

It was important to us that the opening system be totally invisible. 5 to 6 buttons at high pressures, are ideally located at the crotch, allowing a simple, effective, and ultra fast pulling.

La coupe :

There are two major problems to the romper/jumpsuit/ playsuit: the solution of the opening to the point, we had to tackle the following subject: The romper/jumpsuit, it goes only to the perfect girls. This is why the Combi-Renée has no elastic or integrated belt. The belt is independent, and it is placed as you want: under the chest, waist, low waist, etc. By having the fabric blouse at the top of the belt, you can adjust the height of the fork perfectly to your size.

Les matières :

We chose noble materials, 100% mesh or cotton poplin and 100% Tencel for the White Combi-Renée.

The future ?

The combipantalon version for this autumn, available pre-order from September, and many, many, many beautiful things for 2020 ...
