

BlissCo Earns Pre-Sales License Inspection from Health Canada

Not for distribution in the U.S. or to U.S. Newswires

Vancouver, British Columbia – September 5, 2018 – BlissCo Cannabis Corp. (CSE: BLIS) (FRA: GQ4B), (“BlissCo”) or the (“Company”) is pleased to announce that it will complete a pre-sales license inspection from Health Canada in September 2018.

“Health Canada has completed their paper-based review of our application to amend our ACMPR license to include the sale of dried cannabis, and we are excited to announce that our inspection will be completed in September,” said BlissCo CEO, Damian Kettlewell. “Our team is aligned and focused on successfully completing our multi-day, pre-sales inspection and we are cautiously optimistic that we will earn our dried cannabis sales license in November so that we can hit the ground running following legalization.”

The BlissCo team has been focused on scaling up its operations in preparation for commercialization by securing its oil production license, developing an e-commerce strategy, building its network of partners and other high-impact initiatives.

“Dried cannabis products will represent BlissCo’s first chapter of commercialization; future products will be diversified but continue to be wellness-focused. The large majority of our sales within a few years will be from cannabis oil tinctures, capsules, sublingual sprays, concentrates and edibles, with mixed ratios of CBD and THC,” said Kettlewell.
