

Blissco Submits Application for Cannabis Oil Sales Licence

Not for distribution in the U.S. or to U.S. Newswires

Vancouver, British Columbia – April 23, 2019 – Blissco Cannabis Corp. \(CSE: BLIS\) (OTCQB: HSTRF) (FRA: GQ4B), (“Blissco”) or the (“Company”) is a Canadian wellness cannabis brand based in British Columbia, a licensed processor, and producer of premium dried cannabis and cannabis oil and a licensed distributor of dried cannabis products. The Company is pleased to announce that it has submitted a licence amendment to Health Canada that will enable Blissco to sell cannabis oil products to provincially authorized distributors and retailers and to registered medical patients. Blissco received its oil production license in August of 2018 and since then, the company has focused on establishing the oil production processes required to meet the Health Canada regulations.

“We are delighted to have received positive certificates of analysis for two oil batches from an independent, Health Canada approved laboratory,” said Damian Kettlewell, Blissco CEO. “We have validated our internal systems and processes in preparation for the Health Canada oil sales licence inspection, expected to occur in the near future. When Blissco earns its cannabis oil sales licence we will be able to sell to approved medical clients across the country and in provinces where we have distribution and supply agreements for the adult market, currently including British Columbia, Alberta, New Brunswick and Saskatchewan.”

High-CBD and balanced CBD:THC cannabis oil products are in high demand from provincial distributors and medical clients. Blissco is well positioned to manufacture and supply these high-CBD oil products with existing supply and purchase contracts for premium cannabis and hemp.

Upon receipt of the oil sales licence, Blissco will offer the following oil products:

- Full spectrum high-CBD
- Full spectrum balanced CBD:THC
- Full spectrum high-THC
- Hemp derived high-CBD

Blissco’s CO2 extracted, full spectrum oils with pharmaceutical-grade MCT carrier oil, will be sold in 30 ml format glass bottles that feature a graduated dropper, making dosing simple and precise.
