

Blissco Orders Additional High CBD Hemp Following Successful CBD Oil Extraction

Not for distribution in the U.S. or to U.S. Newswires

Vancouver, British Columbia – April 17, 2019 – Blissco Cannabis Corp. (CSE: BLIS) (OTCQB: HSTRF) (FRA: GQ4B), (“Blissco”) or the (“Company”) is a Canadian wellness cannabis brand based in British Columbia, a licensed processor, and producer of premium dried cannabis and cannabis oil and a licensed distributor of dried cannabis products. The Company is pleased to announce that it has successfully manufactured premium CBD oil for R&D purposes by running hemp through extraction cycles.

"Based on the success of our R&D batch run we have now purchased additional hemp from which we will begin to extract high-quality, high-CBD oil and then process it in our licensed CO2 oil lab. Blissco completes extensive due diligence on our supply chain partners to ensure that no contaminants or pesticides are ever introduced into our facility, which is also in the midst of EU GMP certification," said Damian Kettlewell. "We are pleased with the results that we have achieved since earning our cannabis oil production license eight months ago, as well as the encouraging Certificate of Analysis from one of our licensed lab partners that we have received."

CBD oil is in high demand, with many retailers selling out quickly, the market for the product is expected to continue to grow to be worth as much as $16 billion by 2025.

About Blissco Cannabis Corp.

Blissco Cannabis Corp. (CSE: BLIS) (OTCQB: HSTRF) (FRA: GQ4B) is a Canadian wellness cannabis brand based in British Columbia and a multi-licensed processor, cultivator, and distributor of premium cannabis.
