this space can do it all.

A combination of solid white oak, exposed brick and whisky leather banquettes provides a warm environment to discuss new ideas, commemorate milestones, or simply enjoy a night out.

The central bar connects our dining room to the rest of our brewpub, allowing the friendly atmosphere to extend seamlessly throughout the space.

Party Size — Up to 100 guests

Setting — An open space with dedicated bar, 5 private washrooms, and street level access.

Positioned on the corner of Ossington Avenue and Argyle Street, our newly-renovated bar and dining room offer unparalleled views of the vibrant and eclectic street outside.

MEZZANINE

Perfect for a small get together with a view.

Where can you enjoy a pint of beer mere feet from where it was brewed? The mezz!

Overlooking the brewery, our second floor mezzanine is the perfect perch from which to do just that. Whether you're congregating to toast a significant birthday with friends, or to share good food and beer with coworkers, this setting is ideal for a relaxed-yet-cozy gathering.

There's a reason why our staff sit here when they come in for dinner.

PARTIES

Our Ossington brewpub is a great backdrop for any celebration!

We run a busy brewery and restaurant from morning to late, seven days a week, on one of the most action packed streets in downtown Toronto. Put it this way, there's always lots of action. Think of it as "free ambiance"

MEETINGS & GREETINGS ⁴

MEETINGS

Host your corporate event at the brewpub and give your team a one of a kind experience. We offer full private use of the space during off hours, or partial use of the space while our bustling patio is open next door. From morning coffee to a team dinner, we'll take care of everything.

Some audio visual equipment is available, and included with your rental.

BEER, FOOD & OTHER TASTY THINGS

DRINKS

The styles we brew range greatly, and we always remain open to new ways of making beer. For the most part, our current efforts are devoted to aromatic hoppy stuff, crisp lagers, barrel aged wild blends, fruit-forward zingers, and the occasional barrel aged stout. There's always a new, creative project waiting in the wings for you and your guests to try.

Wine, cider, spirits, and non-alcoholic options are also available.

FOOD

From morning to evening, we'll provide the perfect accompaniments for your event with delicious options from our brewery and kitchen.

Food stations, passed canapes, lunch or dinner — we're here to impress your group with the best local ingredients.

GIFT BASKETS

Keep the party going and let us curate a custom Bellwoods gift basket for your clients or guests to take with them when they leave.

Your event coordinator will work with you to create a gift basket to accompany your event perfectly - including drinks, merch, gift cards, and more.

Prices vary.
Shipping is also available.
