Clothes are a necessity;
fashion is a statement.
But it's no secret: the fashion industry has a few major problems.

It's unethical: workers are paid poorly, worked too hard, and often exposed to harmful processes.
It's damaging the environment: producing

synthetic fabrics, bleaching and dying, the use of pesticides for cotton – it all harms the planet.
It encourages mindless consumption: clothing
became cheap, trends became disposable –
leaving us all constantly adding to the world's trash heap. Kaboosh sees things differently.
