THE WINE STORY

The Old Man wine is a tribute to the Barossa's rich heritage. The grapes for the wine are drawn from vines that have proven themselves through 80 vintages. The winemaker is a child of the valley carrying with her a rich family tradition of world-class winemaking.

This wine is a wine to keep and enjoy progressively with time. As good as it is now it will be even more enjoyable in the years to come.

VIGNERON NOTES

The balance achieved in the vineyard between climate and terroir is translated into the wine in the form of silky smooth tannins and a freshness of acidity.

Picked late when flavours display intense dark berry, black pepper and spicy fruits, the Old Man is carefully crafted in the winery and then set to French oak (40% new) for 24 months in preparation for bottling.

Presenting with a deep ruby red colour a testament to the power and concentration that low yielding and seriously old vines provide. Offering rich aromatic bouquet of spices and berry fruits with subtle hues of oak.
