MINIMUM ADVERTISED PRICE POLICY

Gerber Childrenswear LLC (“Company”) is proud of the brand recognition and loyalty it has developed for its products. We recognize that our retailers invest significant time and resources to deliver an extraordinary customer experience. To support your efforts, further enhance our brands’ status and customers’ retail experience, and ensure we meet the quality and service expectations consumers expect, the Company has decided to implement this Minimum Advertised Price Policy (the “MAP Policy”) for retailers selling certain of products in the United States.

Unilateral Policy

This MAP Policy applies only to retailers and to advertised prices, is non-negotiable, and may not be modified for a retailer on a case-by-case basis.

This MAP Policy does not constitute an agreement between you and the Company. The Company recognizes that retailers unilaterally set the retail prices at which they sell our products. This MAP Policy does not, and is not intended to, obligate retailers to set any minimum retail price for the Company products – even if the Company provides a suggested retail price, or MSRP – or to influence in any way the price at which retailers choose to sell Company products.

Official Policy and Guidelines

1. The Company products subject to this MAP Policy and the Minimum Advertised Prices (the “MAP Price” for such Company products are set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
2. The Company reserves the right to update or modify the Company products that are subject to this MAP Policy (the “MAP Products”) and the MAP Prices at any time.
3. Advertising any MAP Products below the MAP Price will violate this MAP Policy.
4. This MAP Policy applies to advertisement of MAP Products in any media (excluding in-store signage), including advertisements broadcast via websites, mobile applications, e-mail, and social media. Each retailer is responsible for the pricing and related data it feeds to any such website, and any display of a price for a Subject Product below the MAP Price as a result of the data provided by the retailer would violate this MAP Policy.

5. With respect to internet, mobile media, and similar advertising, this MAP Policy does not prohibit “click for price,” “display on gesture,” “view in cart,” “view before order confirmation,” “call for price,” “email for price” or similar features whereby consumers can initiate a request to individually receive or view the retailer’s price for Subject Products, even where such prices are below the MAP Price.

6. It will not be a violation of this MAP Policy to advertise in general that a retailer has “the lowest prices,” will match or beat its competitors’ prices, or use similar phrases, so long as the advertisement does not include any reference to the Company brand or any advertised price below the MAP Price for a Subject Product.

7. From time to time, the Company may permit retailers to advertise Subject Products at prices lower than the MAP Price, subject to certain limitations set by the Company at the time. In such case, the Company may modify the MAP Policy with respect to the Subject Products and allow advertising below the MAP Price. The Company may also in its sole discretion suspend application of the MAP Policy altogether for one or more Subject Products for a specified period of time or indefinitely. Current exclusion dates are set forth in Exhibit B.

8. Retailers shall not advertise: (i) storewide or sitewide sales, friends and family events, promotions, etc., that specifically refer to Subject Products; or (ii) additional discounts, coupons, gift cards, or incentives specific to Subject Products, where the advertisement’s effect would be to reduce the price of any Subject Product below the MAP Price.

9. The determination whether a particular advertisement or practice violates this MAP Policy will be made solely by the Company.

10. Under this MAP Policy, retailers must not use, advertise, or promote any Company products in an illegal or deceptive manner, as such actions would have a negative impact on the Company brand image and products. The Company will have the right to respond to any such retailer advertisement or promotion by taking any of the actions outlined below for other violations of this MAP Policy.

11. In the event of a violation of this MAP Policy, the Company may: (a) suspend or terminate retailer’s status as an authorized Company retailer; (b) cancel existing orders and/or refuse to accept new orders for a period of time; and/or (c) take such other action as the Company, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate, including sending a warning letter reminding the retailer of this MAP Policy and the consequences of violating it.

12. This MAP Policy applies to retailers located in the United States that advertise the sale of Company products.

13. This MAP Policy is void and inapplicable wherever prohibited by law.

14. COMPANY SALES PERSONNEL HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO MODIFY OR GRANT EXCEPTIONS TO THIS POLICY. All questions, comments or concerns regarding this MAP Policy may only be directed to the Company at mappolicy@gerberchildrenswear.com.
