

Celebrating the 650th Anniversary of Blessed Julian of Norwich's Revelations.

Beholding & Being Held: Growing with Julian into Life in Christ

at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church Hillsborough, NC

Saturday May 20, 2023
10am-3pm

All welcome, for part or all. Donations recieved gratefully on the day. Register here:
<https://tinyurl.com/julianday23>

SCHEDULE FOR THE DAY

- 10:00 Gathering
- 10:10 Why Julian Still? The Rev. Robert Fruehwirth
- 10:30 Beholding and Being Held: Human Transformation in Paul and Julian. The Rev. Dr. Susan Eastman with the Rev. Robert Fruehwirth
- Break
- 12:00 Eucharist with Meditation
- 12:45 Lunch- Please bring your own! We will picnic on the beautiful grounds of St. Matthews. Coffee, drinks and snacks provided throughout the day.
- 1:30 'A Comon Light': Seeing Christ's Body with Julian and a Passion Poem
– Dr. Joanna Murdoch
- 2:55 Closing Prayer and Blessing

Susan Eastman, an Episcopal priest and New Testament scholar, has taught at Duke Divinity School for the past two decades. Her work focuses on Paul's proclamation of the grace of God in Christ and its power to transform us in our daily lives. She started reading Julian devotionally several years ago, and quickly discovered nourishing points of convergence between Paul and Julian.

Joanna Murdoch lives in Hillsborough with her partner and children and recently finished her Ph.D. in medieval English literature at Duke University. Apart from a brief initial encounter while studying abroad, Joanna was first really touched by Julian's writings while working on her M.A. in Religion and Literature at Yale Divinity School.

Robert Fruehwirth serves as rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Hillsborough. For twenty years he was a monk in the Order of Julian of Norwich and served for 3 years as priest director at the Julian Centre in Norwich, UK. His book on Julian, The Drawing of this Love, was published in 2016 by Canterbury Press.