A reading from chapter 23 of Revelations of Divine Love

It is God’s will that we should rejoice with Him in our salvation and that we should be cheered and strengthened by it. He wants our soul to delight in its salvation, through His grace. For we are His joy. He delights in us for ever, as we shall in Him by His grace.

Thanks be to God.

God, of your goodness, give me yourself, for only in you I have all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

God, of your goodness, give me yourself, for only in you I have all.

You have restored us by your precious passion, and you keep us in your blessed love. Let us pray:

Most Holy Lord, the ground of our beseeching, who through your servant Julian revealed the wonder of your love, grant that as we are created in your nature, and restored by your grace, our wills may be made one with yours that we may come to see your face, our wills may be made one with your will. For you have restored us by your precious passion, and you keep us in your blessed love.

Almighty Father, you gave to your servant, Julian such understanding of your grace and goodness in the passion of your Son, that all things were seen by her to be ordered by your providence and held in your love. Grant us the inward light and the vision of your Holy Spirit, that our hearts being set on fire with love we may live always as though raised to life with Christ, in Whom all is and shall be well, now and to the ages of ages.

Amen.

Lord God, in your compassion you granted to Julian many revelations of your nurturing and sustaining love. Move our hearts, like hers, to see you above all things, for in giving us yourself you give us all.

Amen.

The Lord be with you;
And also with you.
Let us bless the Lord;
Thanks be to God

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us now and always.

Amen.

AN OFFICE WITH JULIAN

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Wait in stillness upon God, be strong, and He shall comfort your heart.

Lord have mercy,
Christ have mercy,
Lord have mercy.

Our Father...

My soul waits patient upon God
For of Him comes my salvation.
He is my strength and my salvation.
He is my defence so that I shall not fall.
In God is my health and my glory;
The rock of my might, and in God is my trust.
Put your trust in Him always.
Pour out your hearts before Him for God is our hope.

O how amiable are thy dwellings, * thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord;
