ABOUT M. CHAPOUTIER

“History will record that Michel Chapoutier is a revolutionary.” – Robert Parker

Family owned since 1808, Chapoutier is now managed by 7th-generation winemaker, Michel Chapoutier. Since he took over this historic estate in 1988, quality has soared.

Today, they are the largest vineyard owner on the prestigious hill of Hermitage, and consistently make outstanding and classic reds and whites, either organically or biodynamically.

Chapoutier is clearly a great believer in terroir. The Chapoutier Sélections Parcellaires are some of the most celebrated and rare wines in the world.

In 2019, the estate was ranked 5th in the “World’s Most Admired Wine Brands” out of more than a 100,000 wineries, published by the British magazine “Drinks International”. Since its first edition in 2011, Chapoutier has been ranked the number one French brand, 5 times in 9 years.

Chapoutier’s footprint has extended to other parts of the world, including Portugal and Australia, with a diverse range from the top to the bottom.

M. Chapoutier,
St-Péray La Muse de RW Brut Nature 2015

Variety: 100% Marsanne

Yellow-fleshed fruit with fine notes of fennel and grilled almonds. Big on entry to the palate, light and crystalline on the palate.

Fine, appetizing bubbles. Notes of hazelnuts, honeysuckle and acacia honey. Long saline finish.

M. Chapoutier,
Condrieu Invitare 2019

17/20 points

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com

Variety: 100% Viognier

“‘Invitare’, with its notes of white peaches, candied fruit and nice taut acidity, shows us the authentic character of the Condrieu appellation.

Goes perfectly with oriental and asian food, but is very pleasant on its own too!” - Jancis Robinson

M. Chapoutier,
Hermitage Blanc Chante-Alouette 2018

95 points

Variety: 100% Marsanne

“The 1990 Chante-Alouette’s yellow color suggests super grape maturity. The nose displays the honeyed, hazelnut, stony, peach-like aromas of a top white Hermitage. In the mouth, there is superb extraction of flavor, combined with surprisingly crisp, high acidity. This is an extremely rich and intense white Hermitage for connoisseurs.” - Wine Advocate

M. Chapoutier,
Hermitage Monier de la Sizeranne 2015

95 points

Variety: 100% Syrah

“Full-bodied, rich and concentrated, with loads of cassis fruit and masses of ripe tannin. To top it off, some meaty, savory notes creep in on the long finish, imparting some intriguing complexity.” -

Wine Advocate

M. Chapoutier,
Ermitage Le Pavillon 2008

93 points

Variety: 100% Syrah

“It offers up scents of blueberries, blackberries, camphor, black truffles and earth. The wine is medium to full-bodied, moderately tannic .”

- Wine Advocate

M. Chapoutier,
Muscat de Beaumes de Venise 2020

Variety: Muscat Blanc, Muscatel, Moscato Bianco

“The floral 2020 Muscat de Beaumes de Venise shows a perfect balance of stone fruits, blossom and bright acidity. It’s fresh, medium-bodied and honeyed, with a great length.”
