

Terms and Conditions

Information About the Preliminary Design:

The Artist agrees to create a preliminary design of the work in the form of a photo arrangement of proposed color gradient from yarns provided by the Customer. The photo arrangement will show all the yarns to be used, and in what order. Customer is encouraged to send a wide variety of colors and weights of yarn, abiding by the following requirements:

- All yarn sent must be caked or balled, and ready to use. Yarn not caked or balled will not be used.
- Yarn should range from fingering to bulky. Any yarn lighter or heavier cannot be used. Yarn can be single ply or plied.
- Yarn must not be textured (i.e. not brushed; not containing mohair).
- Yarn is advised to be a protein-based fiber, preferably wool or wool-blend. Cotton, linen, and acrylic not recommended.

Yarn will be sent to Artist at the expense of the Customer.

The Artist will provide the preliminary design to the Customer within one week after Artist receives yarns.

If the yarn is not sent to the artist within 4 weeks of purchase, the Artist will terminate the project and refund 80% of the TOTAL DUE to the customer. TOTAL DUE is Cost of Work, plus 8% Pennsylvania sales tax.

Delivery of Work

Date of Delivery of Work: 4 weeks after receipt of yarn.

Ownership and Copyright

If the Artist terminates this contract, the rights to the Work remain with the Artist, and the Work can be sold to another customer. The Customer shall return all images and rights to the Artist.

The Artist reserves all rights of reproduction and all copyrights to the Work, the preliminary design, and any incidental work made in the creation of the Work. The Artist shall receive authorship credit in the event of any reproductions of the Work.

Alteration or Destruction

If any alteration occurs after receipt by the Customer, the Work shall no longer be represented as the work of the Artist without the Artist's written consent.
