

Our Vendors

Across Generations is owned by Gina Levesque from Ware, MA. She has an Etsy shop where she sells wool, dyes, and associated tools. She is also teaching Basic Color Theory for Dyers and Introduction to Dyeing and Surface Design.

Gina Levesque is a dyer, rug hooker, and weaver. As a biologist, she finds the chemistry of dye baths fascinating. She has been dyeing for over twenty years and taught dye workshops throughout the United States.

For more information, check out her Etsy store at this link or her Facebook page at this link.

Attic Heirlooms is a wool and needlework online store owned by Trish Harriman from Brooksville, FL. Trish owned a brick and mortar store for about 10 years in Maine until she moved to Florida in 2020. She is very active with Facebook stitch along groups and her website. For more information about Trish's store, click here.

Capri Boyle Jones is the owner of Capri Boyle Rug Studio. She is a national award-winning fiber artist, producing one-of-a-kind hand hooked rugs, home décor, and distinctive fashion accessories. Capri will have one of the largest booths that we offer.

Capri is also teaching Color Theory 201. For more information about Capri, please click on this link.

Chair Massages and Reflexology are going to be offered by Jaime Sommers from A Time For You Massage Center. For more information on Jaime, click here.

Patty Vatter from the Epicurean Boutique is joining us from Occoquan, VA. Patty has a large Etsy store found at this link. Patty is going to have one of our largest sized booths and it will be stocked with a large assortment of threads as well as wool applique and embroidery kits. Patty vends at shows all across the US.

-  Gail DuFresne from Goat Hill Designs also has one of our largest booths. Gail will be sharing lots of wool, fibers, and kits with us. Gail is joining us from Lambertville, NJ. She is a McGown-certified teacher and has been teaching at camps and private workshops around the US and Canada since April 2000.

Gail is teaching the Passion Proddy Sunflower Class. To see her website, please click this link.

-  Vicki Hardcastle of Hardcastle Folk Art is joining us from Eureka Springs, AR. In Eureka Springs, Vicki specializes in rug hooking, hand-dyed wool, yarn and local art. Vicki is teaching a needle felting class where the students will be making these adorable needle felted birds. For more information on Vicki, follow this link to her facebook page.

-  The Little Quilt Store is owned by Laura Kay Houser and is online only. They feature cotton fabric, books, and patterns by Australian artist, Lynette Anderson. Laura Kay has vended at 2 Hookins and is happy to be coordinating the Hookin' this year.

-  Otavalo Textiles is owned by Pam Barich who is visiting our area from Palm Coast, FL. Pam's booth will feature unique jewelry and lovely shawls. To see more information about Pam's business, please visit her website at this link.

-  Panbanged Knits & Fiber Shoppe is a yarn shop located in Brooksville, FL, and owned by Chris Brandl. They stock a wide variety of yarn and a huge assortment of tools and accessories. Chris is offering 2 classes at the Hookin': Knitting Tips and Techniques and Yarn Cake Holder Knitting Project.

For more information on Panbanged Knits & Fiber Shoppe, click here.

-  Real Sharp is owned by Phyllis and Tom Fulwider out of North Fort Myers, FL. They offer sharpening services for knives, scissors and all sorts of gardening tools.

They will only be on site on TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY.

Our previous hosts for Hookins, Searsport Rug Hooking, will be represented by Denise and Neil this year. They will be selling bolt wool only and offering rug frames to be borrowed for classes.

For more information on what's going on at Searsport, go to their Website by clicking here.

The Bee Skep is owned by Lisa and Bob Prive who come in for the show from The Villages, FL. They stock a very wide variety of punch needle, Oxford punch, and rug hooking kits and supplies.

Bob is teaching both the Introduction to Punch Needle class and the Introduction to Oxford Punch class.

For more information about The Bee Skep, please visit their website by clicking here.

Mary Scott from Serendipity Farm's Studio is coming to us from Leesburg, FL. They are authorized dealers for a wide range of looms, spinning wheels and other fiber tools. For more information about their business, please visit their website by clicking here.

Carol Shewan from Willow Creek Rug Hooking is visiting us from Winter Haven, FL. She is going to be sharing her inventory of patterns and a few kits. For information about her company, please visit her website, by clicking here.

Woven Treasures is Debbie Ellis' company. Debbie travels from Sebring, FL, for the show. Debbie makes a wide variety of high quality baskets that are wonderful for many uses. You may have seen her baskets at Searsport Rug Hooking Store.