

2020 JumpStart Competition Rules and Guidelines:

- All submissions must be in PDF format.
- Pilot scripts must not exceed 70 pages. Feature scripts must not exceed 125 pages. All submissions must adhere to standard industry margins and font.
- The competition is open to pilot and feature scripts of all genres.
- Must be written in English in 12-point courier font.
- Do not include any additional documents with your submission i.e. pitch documents, series bibles, look-books, etc.
- All submissions are final. No substitutions of pages, drafts or scripts will be allowed.
- Do NOT cheat in an effort to reduce your page count, your script will be disqualified. As a standard rule, 1.5" left, 1" right and 1" top and bottom dimensions are acceptable.
- You must submit your script with a cover page that includes your scripts name. The cover page does not count towards the overall script page count.
- It is recommended that you do not include your name, WGA registration number and/or Copyright information.
- While it is not a requirement, we encourage writers to register their script with the U.S. Copyright Office and/or Writers Guild of America.
- All scripts submitted will remain the property of the writer(s). Neither Roadmap Writers nor any of its judges and/or their respective companies assume any attachment to your work.
- Multiple scripts may be submitted but each script is required to pay separate registration fees.
- Scripts submitted in the competition must NOT have been previously optioned, purchased or produced at the time of entry.
- Screenwriters who have had previous feature or pilot screenplays produced and distributed by non-independent means are ineligible.
- Must be 18 years old and over to enter.
- No TV specs may be submitted (i.e. Veep Spec, The Office spec, etc).
- Must be an original idea; free and clear of any copyright issues.
- Material must be the original work of the submitter(s).

- Neither Roadmap Writers nor any of its judges and/or competition partners investigate or confirm the authenticity of an entrant's authorship rights or claim.
- In the event of multiple writers, please list all additional co-writers.
- Entrants may be contacted as a result of the competition by Roadmap Writers, a member of the judging panel, or other industry professionals.
- Only entries that purchase Feedback Notes at the time of submission will receive written feedback.
- Roadmap Writers is not responsible for any technical issue(s) that may arise from electronic submission.
- Roadmap Writers' JumpStart Writing Competition readers' decisions are final.
- Submissions will be evaluated by experienced independent industry experts and judged on the criteria of: Premise/Concept, Characters, Dialogue, Story, Structure, and Voice/Style. Submissions will receive multiple evaluations based on the competition's proprietary scoring system.
