I had almost given up hope. Now, for the first time in my life, I am confident when shaking hands and that's worth gold for me.

I've been there, I've gone through it all. [Excessive sweating] is awkward when you want to hold someone's hand, shake someone's hand, etc. [Dermadry] is so sophisticated – I didn't have to do anything, I just sat there and watched TV and the machine took care of the entire treatment!

It is a treatment that is done entirely at home, it's super simple. I did not need any assistance at all, I read the little pamphlet and it went super well.
If you've been living with this problem for some time, you know how annoying it can be to always choose your clothing in relation to your sweating. I'd love to vary my wardrobe and be able to wear light blue sweaters and not find myself with a big underarm stain. I've been really impressed with my results, and now I can wear pieces that I hadn't worn in a long time!

The best investment I've ever made in my life!
I've tried this kind of machine, a total of 4 different kinds, [as well as] aluminum chloride and injections so far, and I personally think Dermadry is the best

Using Dermadry has been quite life-changing, to say the least. I've been using it for almost six weeks and noticed my sweating significantly decrease at the end of the two-week mark.
