

SUZANNE JOHNSON, Ambassador for NFL's Women's Apparel Line

Born and raised in New York City, Suzanne Johnson has worked in the media, entertainment and financial fields in both New York and Los Angeles. After graduating from Cornell University, Johnson worked on Wall Street at Bear Stearns, and then at Sandler O'Neill as a senior managing director in institutional equity sales. As wife to New York Jets owner Woody Johnson, she has taken the helm as ambassador for the National Football League's women's clothing and accessory campaign, and has promoted this line in multimedia platforms ranging from print to live television interviews. Suzanne and Woody Johnson live in New York City with their two sons.

STATIONERY

Pickett's Press

My go-to place for stationery and holiday cards. The designs here are out of the ordinary, and the store will sketch anything you require exactly to your specifications. They help me create a unique holiday card every year with different fonts, colors and designs. I always get so many compliments!

CANDLES

Jo Malone

I burn these candles all the time. Jo Malone has the most beautiful scents. They make a great present, as everyone loves them and the presentation is fabulous.

HEALTHY CAFÉ

Candle Café

Great place for a quick lunch at the counter or where I will meet a girlfriend. I will pop in right after the gym, dressed in workout gear.

BOUTIQUES

Theory

This is where I shop for my running-about clothes. The styles are easy and breezy, and Andrew Rosen is the best.

FURS

J. Mendel at Bergdorf Goodman

This fur salon is the best. Peter Avazis is your go-to-person—he will treat you like a dream.

RELAXATION

Central Park

A favorite thing to do on any beautiful day is walk to Central Park with my husband and walk around the reservoir twice and then stop for coffee. This is my spot for solace in the middle of New York.

JEWELRY

Around the holidays and other special occasions when it's time for a little sparkle, I head to Van Cleef or Bulgari. It's not possible to walk out empty-handed, as they have such beautiful, elegant offerings at all price points.
